BEAT THE NORMAL

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM SHOWED FORM AT PRELIMINARY.

AFTER THE RELAY CUP

Coach Westbrook Hopes to Have Good Showing at Track Meet—Some of the Stars on High School Team.

In a triangular track meet held at the Normal athletic park Tuesday afternoon, with the teams of the high school, Normal and "Come Backs" participating, the high school chaps proved that they intend to be a factor in the Northwest Missouri inter-high school meet which will be held in Maryville, Saturday, April 26, by copping first place with a total of 79½ points. The teachers finished second with 23½, which was but a half point ahead of the "Come Backs." The men on the two latter teams went into the meet with little or no training, and only one man from these two teams entered each event, as their purpose in the meet was not to win, but to aid the local highs in getting into condition for the big event.

Coach Westbrook's men have but little chance to win first or even second in the April meet, if one is to judge by their performance Tuesday afternoon, but there are several athletes on the local squad who should put the Maryville team pretty well up in the running. Lyle has been showing fair form in both the 120 and 220 hurdles, and has been doing good work on the dashes. Captain Staples, who placed in the hurdles last year, ought to be good for several points in these events. Westbrook's team is minus a good distance runner. Montgomery finished in fair time Tuesday evening, but the coach is relying on him to run the quarter and the half. He shows great form in the quarter. The locals should count several points on the field events. Gorman is heaving the shot a good distance, but has fallen down on the discus on account of trying to break away from his own style of throwing and adopt the right form. Both Leech and Capt. Staples have a good chance to place in the hop, skip and jump, and Staples is quite certain to add a point or two in the standing high jump. He made five feet, Tuesday afternoon. He leads in the running broad jump. He will come close to nineteen feet with another week's work.

Coach Westbrook expects to make a strong bid for the relay cup.

Although their regular relay team did not run Tuesday, the high school won the event in one minute and fifty seconds, which is good time, considering the condition of the track.

Following is the summary of the Tuesday meet:

120 hurdles—First, Lyle, high school; second, Condon, high school; third, Staples, high school. Time, 20½ seconds.

MOVE MADE AT BANQUET

Emmett Scott Made Chairman of Committee to Represent Methodist Brotherhood in Movement.

At the Methodist Brotherhood banquet held in the parlors of the First M. E. church on Tuesday evening and attended by sixty-five diners, steps were taken to form an interdenominational athletic association, the object of which is to form a Sunday school base ball league here, and to probably take up other athletics. A committee was selected, of which Emmett Scott is chairman, and this committee will confer with a like committee from the other churches to make plans for organization.

Rev. F. W. Simpson, pastor of the First M. E. church of Shenandoah, Ia., was the speaker of the evening. His subject was "A Man's Job." He spoke of Jesus of Nazareth as a muscular character, and told of tasks being undertaken by Him that called for all that was heroic and manly, and these tasks remade and reformed society from its lowest ideals. It caused the church of today, and the minister's job is not nursing the Saints but to be a man among men. The churches true to the highest ideals of Christ, are changing today from individual experiences to social activities, and it is no longer what a man feels, but how does it make other people feel. In closing, Rev. Simpson read an effective poem of his own composition.

Rev. H. J. Dueker, pastor of the M. E. church of Pickering, and Rev. McCartney of Roland, Ia., who is visiting in the city, were guests at the banquet. DIVIDED HONORS

NORMAL AND HIGH SCHOOL EACH WIN CUP.

HAD A LARGE AUDIENCE

James Jones, Normal, Won Lincoln Cup and Miss Laura Craig, High School, the Washington Cup.

An audience that filled the auditorium and galleries of the First Christian church greeted the high school and State Normal contestants in the third annual Washington-Lincoln cup contest, held Tuesday evening.

The program opened with the singing of "America" by the vast audience, which sang with so much spirit that it was evident the fires of patriotism were above the smoldering point.

The invocation was given by Rev. J. D. Randolph of the Buchanan Street Methodist church.

Mr. R. L. McDougal, chairman of the board in charge of the contest, announced the speakers for the evening. The two young men, Mr. James Jones of the State Normal and Mr. George Crowson of the high school, gave excellent orations on Abraham Lincoln, and the two young ladies, Miss Myrtle McPherron of the State Normal and Miss Laura Craig of the high school, paid as good tribute to George Washington, and their efforts were received with great applause, especially from the schools each represented.

The judges were out a considerable time deliberating upon the merits of the speakers and their orations, but finally came in with a decision, which was announced in a most happy manner by Judge Ira K. Alderman. Mr. James Jones was given the trophy cup for the State Normal and Miss Laura Craig was given the cup for the high school.

The judges were Mrs. E. G. Orear, Mr. W. C. Pierce and Rev. Claude J. Miller.

During the evening some excellent music was given by Miss Nellie Wray, who sang Dudley Buck's "Sunset," and by the State Normal Quartet, who gave two numbers, "Comrades in Arms" and "Annie Laurie."

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Claude J. Miller.

WONDERFUL FILM AT EMPIRE MONDAY EVENING

(Sea of Galilee.)

"From the Manger to the Cross," which is to be give on Monday evening at the Empire theater is a wonderful film of moving pictures, and all people should attend the show. There will be five reels and 5,000 feet of pictures. The above picture is the one that will be shown.

These pictures are probably the most expensive and carefully planned in the world. The life of Christ from His birth in a manger at Bethlehem to His crucifixion on the cross at Mount Calvary is presented in moving form.

LANGUAGE TOO PONDEROUS.

Rev. Herbert Blair Told Normal Students of Difficulties in Becoming a Korean Scholar.

Rev. Herbert E. Blair, Korean missionary, who is in this city attending the conference of the Presbyterian church, addressed the Normal assembly Wednesday morning. Rev. Blair's work in the eastern country has given him an opportunity to get a keen insight into the affairs, particularly the social conditions of the people of Korea, and his talk at the Normal was replete with vivid descriptions of these conditions. "The only particular in which the Koreans are superior to the people of the western world," says Rev. Blair, "is that they possess remarkable memories, due to the fact that the fundamental of their educational system is committing to memory." The missionary says that the people who do things worth while in Korea are not the scholars, because the language is so ponderous that it takes one a life-time to become a learned man, and by the time the Korean has mastered the language in a scholarly manner he is an old man, and the best part of his life is spent.

Rev. Blair is a native of Missouri, having graduated from Park college. He will return to his labors in the Orient next fall.

Rev. J. H. Speer, state superintendent of the home missions, was also present at the assembly and conducted the devotional exercises.

A GOOD TIME TO DRAG.

Now is the Most Effective Time to Drag the Public Highways.

"A good time to drag the roads"—this remark has been frequently heard during the past few days. The roads never needed it more than they do right now, and at no other season of the year can so much good be accomplished with the drag as now. Many of the farmers have already attended to the roads in front of their farms, but the work put on the roads by one farmer is practically wasted unless the farmer next to him will take up the work and do his share, and so on throughout the country.

The "good roads" question has been hashed and re-hashed during the past few years, so that every person that wants to look at the proposition right is convinced that dragging is a good things and that every farmer should take sufficient interest to work his share of the highway. Every farmer likes good roads and prefers traveling over smooth, well worked roads to rough, rutty, and badly cut up roads, whether he owns an automobile or not, and he owes it to himself as much as to the public to do his part in keeping the roads in shape. It is, of course, the farmer's busiest time, but quite a number of them have already given a little of their time to dragging the roads, and it is hoped that within the next few days the others will fall in line.

Gypsies Are Here.

Two gypsy women were arrested Tuesday for telling fortunes in the city without a license. They were arraigned before Mayor Robey and gave their names as Anna and Mary Lewis. They were fined $2 and costs, amounting to $8.10 in each case. These two were from a tribe of gypsies that are camping east of the city. The two women had two bears and a monkey with them when arrested Tuesday by Marshal Moberly.

Suit Before Justice Johnson.

A replevin suit of Mamie West, daughter of Wm. Henry of near Clearmont, against Ernest West was tried Tuesday afternoon before a jury in Justice W. L. Johnson's court, and the plaintiff won the suit. The suit was to replevin three head of horses from the defendant. George Pat Wright represented the plaintiff and Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison the defendant.

Should You Advertise?

In Kansas City, says the University Missourian, there is a little print shop which has the following pointed paragraphs regarding advertising:

"The man who does not advertise because it costs money, should stop paying salaries for the same reason

The business man who does not advertise because he tried it once and failed, should throw his cigar away because the light went out.

"The business man who does not advertise because he doesn't know how himself, should stop eating because he can't cook.

"The business man who does not advertise because somebody said it did not pay, should not believe the world is round because the ancients said it was flat.

"The business man who does not advertise because he cannot know absolutely that it is going to pay, should commit suicide because he is unable to tell whether he will be killed by accident."

Communcations

Editor Democrat-Forum: The enactment of a law by the last legislature providing for a commission form of government for cities has awakened an increased interest in one of the perplexing problems with which the people of this country has to deal. We have had no small amount of trouble in securing efficiency in the management of our state and national affairs. But in these we have so far been much more successful than we have in securing a satisfactory management of our municipal politics. Somehow it seems that the nearer the governing power comes to the people the more difficult the problem becomes. This, in part, I suspect, grows out of the fact that most people do not want to be governed much. They rather enjoy having their "own sweet way" without any regard to the right or wrong of the ways.

One dangerous class of citizens in every community consists of those who have no regard for the effect of their conduct on other people. Hence a no small question is, how can these people be permitted to so exercise their right of citizenship as not to prove detrimental to the public good. It is an admitted fact that efficiency can only come from competency. But how are we to get competency in the management of our municipalities by the present method? The main objection that I have heard to the commission form of government is that the same "gang" that votes incompetent councilmen into office will vote incompetent commissioners into office. Does it not seem somewhat strange that we have a method of securing competency on the part of those that we employ in nearly every sphere of service except in that of political office in the municipalities? If the law does require a standard of competency, there are well defined standards for those who aspire to county positions. Even a farm hand, before the 1913 session will be in order, is required by law to be a man of moral character." But when it comes to the standard of qualification for a city councilman or a city marshal? Surely it requires as much of character and ability to manage the affairs of a city as it does the affairs of a saloon.

But how is this efficiency to be secured? Any qualified elector of legal age has a right to be a candidate for any office, and the qualified electors have a right to vote for whomsoever they please, without any reference to the question of efficiency. The result is that those who do not want the restraints of a well regulated law-abiding community, and care nothing for the higher and more ennobling influences of society, always vote for their own sort for office, and, too frequently, because of the indifference or lack of courage on the part of the so-called good people, the incompetents are elected, and the affairs of the city for the time being are turned over to be managed by men who know little or nothing of its needs and cares. The evident intent of the promoters of the commission form of government is to remedy, as far as possible, the defects of the present system. The method is too new to be anything yet but experimental. But it must be admitted that so far the experiment has not disappointed its friends. As yet it has hardly been tried long enough to ascertain what its merits and demerits really are. I venture to suggest that in the last analysis it will be found that the extent to which is concentrates responsibility will be found to be its one feature of greatest merit.

Under the present form the police officers of the city of Maryville are appointed by about 1,000 voters. Thus these officers are responsible to everybody in general and nobody in particular. About the same is true of the mayor and of the councilmen. In the commission form the entire responsibility of the management of the affairs of the city must be assumed by the commissioners. And it matters not by whom they are elected, whether it be by the same "old gang" or by the best people of the city. The very fact of the larger responsibility has its moral effect, and compels a regard for the best interest of the community. For one I am at least willing to give it a trial.

PREVENTIVE MEDICINE.

Ecuador.

The economic value of Preventive Medicine has attracted international attention. The good results obtained in cleaning up the Panama canal zone by Major Gorgas of the United States army are demonstrations or examples that will easily convince anyone of the value of preventive measures. Under his direction the Panama canal zone has been converted from a pest ridden tropical country to a country as healthful as any of the large cities in the United States—a result hardly conceivable before this demonstration.

The foremost men of all nations have been closely watching the progress of public health matters in the Panama canal zone. Recently Ecuador requested the United States to permit Colonel Gorgas to come there for the purpose of cleaning that country. Our government has sanctioned this request, so that Dr. Gorgas may go to Ecuador for the purpose of demonstrating the value of Preventive Medicine. The leading people of Ecuador have been convinced that money judiciously spent on sanitary measures is a rich investment.

The people of Missouri, like the people of Ecuador, can well afford to look into the value of preventive measures and adopt means to put them into effect.

THE GOLDEN AGE AT HAND.

Scriptural Evidences That Are Astonishing—No One Can Afford to Be Without the Knowledge.

We do our friends a valuable service when we call their attention to the valuable book entitled, "THE TIME IS AT HAND," in which are given many Scriptural evidences to prove where we are on the stream of time.

"Men's hearts are failing them for fear" and many of the leading thinkers are proposing remedies to better conditions. The Scriptures assure us that man's extremity will be God's opportunity, and this book holds out an anchor to those who fear the wave of unrest now spreading over the world.

The honest heart confesses that it is at a loss for an explanation of transpiring events. While we refer to this as the BRAIN AGE and the Age of ENLIGHTENMENT, nevertheless many realize that we are fast approaching a crisis which is wrapped in darkness owing to the present world-wide social, religious and political unrest.

"Let George Do It."

This time of year goods that will not sell ON MERIT have hard time of it. They must be pushed out SOMEWAY.

"Let George" be "penny wise and pound foolish." You can't afford such extravagance.

Quality goods are everywhere, and always the cheapest for the man who knows the farming game—right. A real carpenter NEVER buys poor tools no matter WHAT the price.

Here is a little history:

What One Man Knew

Seventy-six years ago a man was hammering out plows by hand in a little blacksmith shop. He had but one policy—a policy that never changed.

"Quality is the one thing wise people NEVER forget," he said, "and quality shall be MY motto—a guiding star I will follow to success."

That man guessed right. He knew the American farmer.

By sticking to QUALITY he became the greatest plow builder of all time. Plows bearing his name are now and have been the world's standard for two generations. They outsell all other makes of steel plows combined.

And that shows what the money making farmer thinks about QUALITY.

Make Easy Money

Multiplying the work of your hands, doing more in the same time, doing better work, is like getting interest on money. It helps a lot and doesn't come hard. It's "Velvet."

Going back to plows—take the New Deere and think of—

1. Quick Detachable Shares. Only one bolt to remove. Saves 80 per cent of the time and all the trouble changing shares. Greatest improvement since the invention of the riding plow.

2. Rigid frame, strongest made. Holds true to shape after years of use. Does not get out of line, become shaky and pull hard. Stands up to the work long enough to make it the cheapest plow in the world, regardless of FIRST Cost.

3. Combined foot and lever lift. You can raise or lower the bottoms without getting on the seat. Convenient when walking on cold mornings or to "stretch your legs."

4. Genuine John Deere Bottoms that never have been equaled for light draft, superb turning qualities and long life. This is the verdict, because farmers use eight times as many of them every year as any other make. That's the answer.

Failure to demand a New Deere Gang when you buy is like loaning money without interest. You are giving away the "Velvet"—the easy money that takes less sweat to make.

Better Seed Beds.

The seed bed is the home of the plant. Look into this question of discing before plowing as well as after. We have the dope in a booklet; ask for it.

The John Deere Model "B" is the only REALLY FLEXIBLE disc harrow. It will cut the full width of the gangs when going diagonally over corn rows and uneven ground.

By using the third lever you can force the inner ends of the gangs down and cut out a dead furrow perfectly. Think of it.

Don't talk about a "Jim Crow" disc. Get the real thing.

He Lost $480.

A Planter was offered for $5.00 less than a John Deere, and he fell for it.

Looked like a chance to save some money.

He said that losing only thirty kernels in 100 hills did not amount to shucks, but it was equal to 10 per cent in accuracy and the difference on his 100 acres that year cost him $480.00 when he huskel his corn in the fall.

Talk about something to make a man sit up and take notice, how is that for left handed economy?

A Whirlwind

The biggest sensation in the implement world this year is the John Deere Spreader.

THE SPREADER WITH THE BEATER ON THE AXLE, THE LOW DOWN SPREADER WITH THE HIGH DIVE WHEELS.

Boys, there is nothing to it. Line up all the different spreaders in a row and if you went down the line you would pick out the John Deere without anybody saying a word to you about it. More sold the past year than all others put together—and that's going some.

Sowing "Wild Oats"

You hear a lot about sowing "wild oats," but beware of anything you can't sow with a Van Brunt Drill or Seeder.

The Van Brunt will handle all the profitable kinds, even Texas oats that put most drills out of business. The patent gate feed—don't miss seeing these drills and seeders now on display at the store.

Talk About Reputation.

When you think of hay tools, there is one name that stands out like a mountain from the surrounding plain. DAIN—the last word on hay machinery. Mowers, Loaders, Rakes, Stackers, Balers. A full line of quality goods, famous the world over. DAIN—

O! Yes, the Free Book.

One of the great subjects that means profit or loss to you is how to maintain the fertility of your land.

There is a new book called "Farm Manures and Fertilizers" just published. It tells all about—

Plant food in different kinds of Manures, the value of Humus, Manure and Crop Rotation, preserving Manure, composting, how to apply on the land, cost, increasing yield of crops, top dressing, Green Manures, Lime, Acid Soils, and all the rest of it. Fully illustrated, no advertising.

The publishers have given me twenty-five coupons, each coupon good for one of these books mailed free. We are going to give a coupon to the first twenty-five men who call for them. Don't wait, be one of the twenty-five to get a free book. It won't cost you a cent if you beat the other fellow to it.

Now, men, don't forget that quality counts whether in live stock or implements. The scrubs are cheap in both. You never make money on runts. Time is the most valuable thing you have, and you waste it by using a farm tool after you know there is a better one you can get.

Remember about the free book.

QUITS LUXURY FOR PULPIT

Millionaire Would Don Overalls If It Would Help Fill Churches.

Kansas City, April 15.—A millionaire's son, the Rev. Ernest C. Webb who forsook motor cars and the "easy life" for the pulpit, preached his first sermon at the Cleveland Avenue Methodist church South. The Rev. Mr Webb is a son of E. T. Webb of Webb City, one of Missouri's wealthiest mine owners. His words were somewhat explanatory of his action in forsaking wealth.

"I want the men in overalls and the women in calico to fill this church every Sunday," said the young minister. "The crying need of our life today is a poor man's church. I will shed this Prince Albert and preach in homespun if it will help.

"Not money, but service is the greatest thing in this world. I would rather be a tub rustler in a 'Jack' mine than a millionaire mine owner who cares for nothing but hearing gold jingle."

The Rev. Mr. Webb is a graduate of Yale university.

Overworked; Ends His Life.

St. Louis, April 15.—Roger V. Scudder, president of the Wesco Supply company, shot himself dead in his Kirkwood residence. Relatives said overwork caused his health to suffer. He was forty-five years old. He left a young widow and a fourteen-year-old daughter by his first wife.

POLICE CAPTAIN HUSSEY.

Former New York Inspector, Indicted In Graft Exposures.

FOUR INSPECTORS INDICTED

Sweeney, Murtha, Hussey and Thompson Charged With Graft.

New York, April 15.—A blanket indictment, charging conspiracy, was returned by the grand jury investigating alleged graft in the police department against Police Captains Dennis Sweeney, John Murtha, James E. Hussey and James F. Thompson. All these officers formerly were inspectors. Sweeney previously had been indicted on a bribery charge.

The indictment of the four grew out of the departure from New York county of George A. Sipp, a former hotel proprietor, on whose accusation Patrolman Eugene Fox was charged with bribery.

NO DISORDERS MARK STRIKE

Two Hundred Thousand Workers Abandon Belgium's Shops.

COAL MINES HARDEST HIT.

Territory About Charleroi Almost Deserted of Employees—Socialist Leaders Confident That They Will Compel Government to Grant Suffrage.

Brussels, April 15.—The great strike of workingmen in Belgium to force the government to grant manhood suffrage is proceeding quietly. It is estimated that 200,000 men throughout the country have quit work. This number is at least 100,000 short of the socialist predictions, and the clerical press is beginning to call the movement a "pitiable fiasco."

Nevertheless the strike has shown greater strength than was expected by impartial observers and it is believed generally that the strikers will be reinforced by several thousand today. The strike thus far has been unmarked by disturbances or any special inconveniences to the general public. The gas, electric light and street cleaning services are in operation as usual, but merchants say business is at a standstill. The city is full of provincial strikers, who are being cared for by the families of liberals.

The only act of sabotage occurred in a suburb, where three big machines in a leather factory were damaged.

Brussels is not an industrial center.

There are about 50,000 workmen here, of whom less than 20,000 are out.

The premier, M. de Broukeville, in an interview, admitted that if the strike dragged on it might prove dangerous by leading to disorders, but he said there was no present reason to fear disturbances.

The suspension of work in the coal mines is complete.

Socialist leaders expressed confidence that they will win the fight for suffrage.

GRANDMOTHER USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HER FADED OR GRAY HAIR.

Mixed With Sulphur It Makes Hair Soft, Beautiful; Cures Dandruff.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But the brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays skilled chemists do this better than ourselves. By asking at any drug store for the ready-to-use product—called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy"—you will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Some druggists make their own, which is usually too sticky, so insist upon getting Wyeth's, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says his customers insist on Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because, they say, it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use too. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. Do this at night and by morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

ALBERT C. FROST IS FOUND NOT GUILTY

Verdict Marks End of Alaskan Land Fraud Cases.

Chicago, April 14.—Albert C. Frost, former president and promoter of the Alaska Central railroad, and his four co-defendants, George M. Seward, Pierre G. Beach, Frank Watson and George C. Ball, all interested in the development of the road, were found not guilty in the federal court here of conspiracy to obtain illegally millions of dollars' worth of coal lands in the Matanusko valley, Alaska.

Disputes over the methods of coal claim locators caused the coal lands to be withdrawn from entry in President Roosevelt's last administration. Frost and his associates were indicted March 16, 1911, in the United States district court here, charged with conspiracy to obtain control of sixty-four coal locations by means of "dummy entrymen." The government asserted that the railroad promoters caused stenographers and other employees to apply for coal lands with the purpose of turning the entire group over to Frost.

The verdict, while a vindication of the business methods of the defendants, does not open the way for the completion of the railroad, as the coal lands still are withdrawn from entry and will remain so until released by the department of the interior.

BITTER FIGHT IS INDICATED

Opposed Factions in D. A. R. Congress Have First Clash.

Washington, April 14.—Factional bitterness in the Daughters of the American Revolution was intensified by the sending of a letter from the executive committee of the conservative party, headed by Mrs. William C. Story, a candidate for the president generalship, to Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, retiring head of the society, urging that steps be taken to insure an election fair to all candidates, and a quick denunciation of this action by Mrs. Scott.

Double Bottom Saves Steamer.

Juneau, Alaska, April 14.—The Canadian Pacific steamship Princess Sophia, Captain Charles Campbell, struck a rock at Sentinel island. A large hole was torn in the port side of the steamer's bow, but she was able to proceed on her way to Vancouver, B. C., under her own steam. The steamer's double bottom kept her from sinking. She is taking a little water and is believed to be in no danger.

Excursion Train Wrecked; 7 Dead.

PRESIDENT'S POSITION STRONG

First Week of Tariff Session of Congress is Past.

LONG STRUGGLE ONLY STARTED

Senate Leaders Have Pledged Their Support to Administration's Plans. Minority Leaders Active—Wool Fight This Week.

Washington, April 14.—President Wilson emerged from the first week of the special tariff session of congress apparently in a stronger position as the active leader of Democracy than at any time since he assumed the presidency.

Within the brief space of seven days he had won a victory in the caucus of the house Democrats for his free sugar program; had formed a working agreement with the Democratic leaders of the senate, which, it is believed, will insure general support of his tariff program in that body; and had established precedents of presidential co-operation with congress, which, if successful, are expected greatly to influence the entire program of legislation throughout the Wilson administration.

At all points where Mr. Wilson's decision was instrumental in the fixing of rates in the new tariff bill, the full Democratic membership of the house voted to sustain him in caucus by heavy majorities. House leaders, who deferred to him in the fixing of many of the tariff rates, have supported his decisions and successfully rallied party support to his defense as the bill has been fought over by the Democratic members.

The tariff revision fight admittedly is only begun, but the developments of the last week have convinced party leaders that there are likely to be few changes from the rates favored by the president, and little dissension within Democratic ranks over the final approval of the bill.

Wool Fight This Week.

The wool fight will come in the house caucus early this week. While a Democratic minority organization of forty or more representatives will attempt to upset the president's free wool program, it is expected that the administration will be sustained by a large majority.

Senate leaders have pledged to the president their support of the sugar and wool provisions as finally accepted in the house. Senator Myers of Montana, who has been counted on by some of the anti-free wool forces as their ally, has informed members of the finance committee and has stated publicly that he favors the free wool program and will uphold the president's course as to this schedule.

The full Democratic membership of the house resumed consideration of the tariff behind closed doors today.

Republican members of the house ways and means committee who had no part in preparing the Underwood bill, are now working on substitute cotton and wool schedules.

Alaskan railroad legislation, which also is to be the subject of senate hearings, will be pressed for early action. Senator Pittman, chairman of the territories committee, will attempt to have an Alaskan government-railroad bill passed through the senate before tariff revision is taken up.

DRAINAGE CONGRESS CLOSES

Wilson Administration Is in Sympathy With Movement.

St. Louis, April 14.—The reading of a telegram from Washington pledging the Wilson administration to substantial work towards the solution of flood, drainage and river navigation problems; the adoption of resolutions urging the creation of a national department of public works under a cabinet member; the defeat of a resolution urging a congressional appropriation for the flood prevention plans of the Mississippi river commission—all these events marked the closing session of the National Drainage congress here.

In addition resolutions were adopted providing for the establishment of a malaria section of the drainage congress and urging the southern states to appoint commissions that will cooperate with the United States public health service in stamping out malaria.

Valdez Named President.

San Domingo, April 14.—Jose Borda Valdez was elected by congress as president of the republic to succeed Archbishop Nouel, who resigned recently because of ill health. The government, within a year, must call a general election.

PNEUMONIA IS FEARED

Indications Point to Utmost Gravity of Condition of Pontiff.

ALL BULLETINS ARE CENSORED

When the Pontiff Expectorated Blood, Attendants Rushed for Doctors, Thinking Death Was at Hand—Temature Rises Rapidly.

Rome, April 14.—All indications point to the utmost gravity of the pope's condition. This morning the fever and cough were giving cause for great alarm. The impression had gained ground that the tracheal bronchitis had developed into pneumonia.

While not absolutely denying this, Professor Marchiafava said:

"At the present time it could not properly be called pneumonia, but with tracheal bronchitis sometimes the lungs do not function properly. Probably the resistent and robust fibre of the holy father may overcome this danger. Meanwhile, we can make the statement, which must give rise to great hope, that the condition of albuminuria has disappeared."

In the two bulletins issued the pope's condition was set forth as hopeful, but it has been learned that the bulletins as prepared by the attending physicians have come under the censorship of the papal secretary of state.

After midnight there was an increase in the temperature of the patient and the fact that a large quantity of disinfectants had been brought into the sick apartment was considered as an indication that the bronchitis had developed into pneumonia.

The monk Vives y Tuto, brother of the cardinal, who has been for some time the confessor of the pope, entered his room and remained there forty-five minutes. It is supposed he confessed the pontiff.

Great alarm was occasioned when the pope, during a strong access of coughing, emitted a quantity of blood. Those present thought he was dying and rushed for a doctor and Cardinal Merry Del Val. The latter, on reaching the bedside, restored calm, saying that probably the pope would feel great relief, as the presence of the blood was doubtless due to the rupture of small vessels in the throat.

OJEDA LOSES NACO BATTLE

Surrenders Himself and Federals to American Troops.

Naco, Ariz., April 14.—General Pedro Ojeda, commanding the remnants of his federal garrison of 300 troopers at Naco, Sonora, surrendered to the United States troops on border patrol here, after having withstood a siege of state troops which lasted for five days, and in which more than half his troopers were killed.

The surrender was hastened by the attack upon the federal garrison by the band of Yaqui Indians under General Obregon, commanding the state troops, who, at daybreak, burst in upon the little garrison across the border and fought viciously.

The dead on both sides has been estimated at 200, and the fortifications at Naco are veritable slaughter pens. About the buildings are strewn more than 100 bodies, shot, cut and horribly mutilated.

General Ojeda, true to his promise, refused to surrender to the state troops, and while the fighting was at its height he attempted to march across the border with his band of faithful federals. The fire from the enemy was demoralizing and Ojeda and his men scattered, running to the railway tracks which separate the two border towns. Not even then did the firing from the rebels cease and General Ojeda shouted to the American soldiers watching the fighting from a distance.

Captain H. A. Stuart, company A, Ninth United States calvary, ran alone to his assistance. The American officer grasped the Mexican general by the arm. Together they ran in a hail of lead to where an automobile was waiting.

Newest Pest.

The newest pest in the west and middle west is the dog. Not the prairie dog, just the common dog. He is responsible for the decline in the sheep raising industry. In many states in the section of the country once largely devoted to cattle and sheep raising, there are more dogs than there are sheep. It takes three barb wires on top of two feet of woven wire to make a fence that will keep dogs away from sheep. Kansas had 175,000 sheep and 199,000 dogs in 1910, according to the secretary of the Kansas board of agriculture.

The usual answer farmers in the west give to the question, "Why don't you keep sheep?" is "We can't keep dogs from killing them."

All persons having any of my chicken coops I would greatly appreciate their returning same at their earliest convenience.

FINAL DRAFT OF BILL MADE

Aliens Not Allowed to Hold Property More Than One Year.

Sacramento, Cal., April 14.—The final draft of the proposed anti-alien land law that is to take the place of all bills that have been introduced relating to the same subject was adopted by the senate on second reading and will come up for final passage in the upper house of the legislature today.

The bill contains nothing that can be construed as grounds for confiscation or escheat of any property held prior to the time the law goes into effect.

Suffrage Meetings Broken Up.

London, April 14.—The weekly attempt of suffragettes to hold a meeting in Hyde park against the opposition of the anti-suffragettes was made again. The crowd howled down the speakers and hurled missiles at them until the police were forced to interfere and escort the suffragettes from the park. Wild disorder occurred at Wimbledon common, where an enormous force of police was engaged in protecting suffragettes holding an open air meeting. A suffragette meeting at Hempstead heath also was broken up.

FIVE THOUSAND DRUGGISTS.

Unite in Opinion Regarding One Medicine.

If any one should know the value of a medicine it is the retail druggist who sells it.

Therefore, when over five thousand of the best retail druggists in the country recommend Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, as the greatest tonic reconstructor and strength creator they have ever sold, it must indicate the value of Vinol.

We could publish columns of such testimony as the following:

Mr. E. C. Spens, druggist of Alpena, Mich., says: "Vinol is the ideal tonic reconstructor, as it really today is the best remedy we have on our shelves."

Mr. C. F. Bucholtz, the leading druggist of Springfield, Ohio, says: "Vinol gives better satisfaction than any medicine I have sold in my store."

We ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person or any person suffering from chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis, to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not do all we claim.—Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

ATTEMPT TO KILL ALFONSO

Three Shots Fired at King of Spain Without Effect.

OWES LIFE TO HORSEMANSHIP

Animal Rears as Assailant Jumps for Bridle—King Calm After Attack. Reassures Attendants With "It Is Nothing, Gentlemen."

Madrid, April 14.—For the third time in his reign King Alfonso narrowly escaped being the victim of an anarchistic attempt against his life. Three shorts were fired at the king in the streets of the capital by a native of Barcelona, Rafael Sanchez Allegro, who was immediately overpowered.

King Alfonso owes his escape to his own courage, quickness and skilled horsemanship. Accompanied by his staff, he was riding along the Calle de Alcala, returning from the ceremony of swearing in recruits, when a man sprang from the sidewalk and seized the bridle of the king's horse with one hand, firing the revolver with the other. The king realized the situation rapidly, and dug his spurs into the horse, which reared violently. His quickness saved his life. The bullet instead of burying itself in the king's breast, struck the horse. So close was the range that the king's left glove was blackened by the powder discharge.

Assailant Overpowered.

Before the assailant was able to pull the trigger again a secret service man sprang upon him. The two men fell to the ground locked in each other's arms, struggling furiously. The assassin managed to free his revolver arm and fired two more shots in rapid succession, but the officer knocked his arm aside and the bullets flew harmlessly through the air.

At the sound of the first shot, the king's staff forced their horses on the sidewalk and made a ring around the assassin, who fought fiercely in the grip of four policemen before he was overpowered and handcuffed.

King Alfonso, as soon as he saw that the man had been secured, raised himself from the stirrups, turned to the crowd, gave a military salute and shouted in a ringing voice:

"Long live Spain!"

He then dismounted and reassured his staff, saying:

"It is nothing, gentlemen."

TAKES BRITISH VIEW OF TREATY

Wilson is Against Free Use of Canal by American Ships.

WOULD BE SUBSIDY IN EFFECT

President Regards Proposed Exemption as Violation of Compact—Executive Would Delay Action on Proposition Until Tariff Is Settled.

London, April 16.—The report sent by James Bryce, British ambassador to the United States on the results of a recent conversation with President Wilson foreshadows, it is understood, a favorable termination of the controversy between the two countries over the question of the Panama canal tolls. The Manchester Guardian understands that President Wilson will shortly make an important statement on the question.

Washington, April 16.—While President Wilson has never expressed himself publicly on the question of Panama canal tolls, he has informally indicated to his friends that he believes in an interpretation of the treaty which would make it improper for the United States to exempt its vessels in the coastwise traffic from paying tolls. He is also understood to take the position that the exemption as now proposed is in effect a subsidy, and he always has been opposed to subsidies.

The report that the president had intimated to Ambassador Bryce that the settlement of the question would be favorable to Great Britain is credited generally in official circles, because it is thought that Mr. Wilson's personal friendship for the retiring ambassador would account for their intimate conversation on this point just before Mr. Bryce's departure, although Mr. Wilson has been urged not to give formal expression to his views until the tariff is disposed of in the present session of congress. Mr. Wilson is said to realize that the tolls question might, if brought up at present, divide the Democratic majority and cause embarrassment to the tariff question, which he regards as paramount.

The inference drawn from the London report is that the president has seen fit informally to indicate to England that a favorable adjustment will be forthcoming, so as to forestall early representations from Great Britain and so that the British government might understand fully the strategic reason for temporary delay.

Senator Root's bill to repeal the free toll provision of the new law will be the subject of consideration by the new committee within a short time.

STILWELL IS ACQUITTED

Declared Not Guilty of Graft Charges by New York Senate.

Albany, N. Y., April 16.—Stephen J. Stilwell, Democratic senator from New York city, was declared not guilty of unofficial conduct. By a vote of 21 to 28, the senate voted not to sustain charges brought by George H. Kendall, president of the New York Bank Note company, that Stilwell had accepted half of a $250 fee paid for the drafting of a bill in which the company was interested and had solicited a $3,500 bribe.

The announcement of the vote marked the climax of a most dramatic session. After counsel for both the accuser and accused had summed up Senator Stilwell himself made an eloquent plea in his own behalf. He was haggard and in tears when he concluded.

Lynch Slated for Public Printer's Job

Washington, April 16.—James M. Lynch, president of the International Typographical union, is slated for public printer. Senators Hughes and Martine and the New Jersey delegation in congress who came to urge President Wilson to select Cornelius Ford, president of the New Jersey State Federation of Labor, were told that Lynch had been practically decided upon.

Osborne for First Assistant to Bryan

Washington, April 16.—President Wilson nominated former Governor John E. Osborne of Wyoming to be first assistant secretary of state; Walter S. Page of New York, to be ambassador to Great Britain, and W. H. Osborne of Greensboro, N. C., to be commissioner of internal revenue.

Movies Cause a Shooting.

Denver, April 16.—At a moving picture show Ralph Jones, aged fourteen, became excited over a wild west scene shown on the screen, pulled a broken revolver from his pocket, and fired at the bandit's picture. The bullet struck William O. Fuller in the temple, but inflicted only a flesh wound.

Hitchcock Calls for Correspondence

Washington, April 16.—All correspondence between the United States and Colombia relating to the latter's claims for the partition of Panama are called for, to be submitted to the senate, by a resolution introduced by Senator Hitchcock.

Denies Outbreaks by Moros.

Washington, April 16.—General J. Franklin Bell, commanding the Philippine division, cabled the war department that everything is quiet on the island of Jolo. He said there was no justification for alarming reports about Moro outbreaks.

CALIFORNIA HOUSE PASSES LAND BILL

Tokyo Papers Up in Arms Against Alien Ownership Act.

Sacramento, Cal., April 16.—An anti-alien land ownership bill, designed primarily to prevent Japanese from acquiring title to real property within the state, but so worded as to prohibit any alien from owning land more than one year, except on a declaration of his intention to become a citizen, was passed by the lower house of the legislature by a vote of 60 to 15. After two hours had been spent in debating proposed amendments, the bill went to a roll call without a word of argument.

In order not to embarrass foreign corporations the committee did make the corporation clause of the bill, section 8, apply only to "aliens not eligible to citizenship."

Several proposed amendments were defeated in quick order before Assemblyman Johnson proposed to put back in the bill throughout "the aliens not eligible to citizenship" clause.

Tokyo Papers Up in Arms.

Tokyo, April 16.—The leading newspapers of Tokyo, the Asahi, the Kikumin Shimbun and Jiji Shimpo, which usually are conservative, have assumed an extremist attitude on the projected alien ownership question in California. The Kikumin Shimbun is almost violent, while the Asahi is pessimistic.

MORALS COURT PROPOSED

Illinois Welfare Commission Will Introduce Bill in Legislature.

Chicago, April 16.—A state morals court, with women as judges, to protect working girls against unprincipaled employers will be proposed in a bill to be introduced in the Illinois legislature by the state senate's welfare commission.

Lieutenant Governor O'Hara, chairman of the commission, made this announcement just before members of the investigating body departed for Springfield.

"We have received scores of letters from stenographers and factory girls telling how they had been led astray by the men for whom they worked," said the lieutenant governor. "These letters were not ananymous, and we have a list of more than 200 business and professional men filed away for reference. These men figured in the communications we received as responsible agents for the moral ostracism of more than 200 girls.

"The girl who is wronged by a man of station can do practically nothing under present conditions. When she goes to court the publicity injures her more than it does the man and she frequently is accused of attempted blackmail.

"With five women acting as judges of a state's moral court conditions will be changed. Girls can tell their experiences in confidence and escape harmful publicity. The name of the responsible man will be known to the court and if circumstances warrant the information can be used either to drive the man from the community or to prosecute him."

Not Trying to Flim-Flam You ---We've Got the Goods

IF YOU were buying Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Groceries, Furniture, Hardware or any of the other necessities of life you'd want to know what you were paying for. Is there any good reason why the man or woman who spends money for advertising should be less particular? There are but three elements in paying advertising—the article advertised, the manner in which the advertisement is presented and the medium used. We have THE BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM in Northwest Missouri—the best in Nodaway county and the best in Maryville. In a city in which according to the United States census less than 5000 people dwell we have attained to a circulation with a daily average for the past six month—152 publication days—of 2434. Not in all Missouri can you find any daily paper similarly situated which has a circulation nearly so large. Look at the table—the figures tell the story in language most eloquent and forceful.

With no day running below 2320 for a period of six months containing 152 publication days, the daily average circulation of the Democrat-Forum was

2434

During that period there were no "special issues," no contests to work up circulation, no extraordinary efforts made to stimulate interest in the growth of the paper other than to maintain the everyday standard of the paper itself—that's been our aim—to make a paper that was "worth while."

The mere claim that a newspaper has a certain circulation might be viewed with more or less suspicion. But REMEMBER we are presenting you with a sworn statement that the Daily average for six months was

2434

The claims of other papers to circulation should not be considered unless they are willing to submit to the "acid test" of making affidavit to what they are actually doing—it's the only method by which the public can be certain and is the method employed by leading papers everywhere.

2434

The Paper Whose Circulation Grows Naturally is the One That Reaches the Homes

There are two kinds of circulation—the one kind is that attained because of the interest and confidence felt by its subscribers in the reading matter contained in its columns—such an interest as causes its readers to feel that it's "my paper." The other kind is the circulation that is forced and stimulated by extraordinary methods. It bears the same relation to the first kind as does the hot house plant to the plant that grows in the sunlight and open air and that is nourished and fed by the elements of nature. We have fought "shy" of the second kind—we've turned down dozens of schemes that in the estimation of their promotors would have made us rich. But we have tried to give the news—fairly and impartially, whether we liked it or not; we have tried to avoid "coloring" news articles and to make sensations out of plain ordinary occurrences. Our readers have met us upon this issue and have approved it and appreciated it. The proof of the assertion is found in the table of figures presented for your consideration. The advertiser who is wise will place his advertising with the paper that has the hold upon the hearts of the people. And "Lest We Forget"

POPE'S CONDITION IS AGAIN SERIOUS

Pontiff's Temperature Rises Above One Hundred.

BRONCHIAL SYMPTOMS APPEAR

This Condition Is Causing New and Grave Concern—Dark Reports Are Current, but Physicians Still Say "No Danger."

Rome, April 16.—There has been a sudden change for the worse in the condition of Pope Pius X. Notwithstanding the reassurances of Professor Marchiafava, a careful watch is being kept on the Vatican and there is doubt that the "satisfactory general condition" of the pontiff, as reported by the doctors, is borne out by the facts.

The temperature of the pope, which throughout the morning remained at 97 degrees, in itself indicating depression and weakness, rose to 100 and later to 102. The bronchial symptoms, which at the morning examination were found to be diminished, presented new and grave features. The affected zone on the left side of the chest was further congested, with a possible area of consolidation—one of the signs of phenia—and the conditions within the bronchial tube were more pronounced.

Dark Reports Current.

The darkest reports are being circulated. One is that the pope is at the point of death and that Father Pifferri, an Augustinian monk, has been ordered to be in readiness to bring to the patient the last communion, this being the prerogative of his office.

This appears to be an exaggeration of the situation, although undoubtedly the pope's condition is much worse, owing to the fact that he did not take sufficient rest and over-exerted himself, as he had done on previous occasions. This resulted in general prostration, elevation of the temperature and inability to retain even the lightest nourishment.

The arrival in Rome of Angelo Sarto, the pope's brother, was interpreted in some quarters as a certain sign that all hope had been abandoned. It was forgotten that Angelo Sarto left his own village on his journey to the Holy City long before the present setback of the patient occurred; in fact, the condition of the pope was greatly improved.

Professor Marchiafava's visit to the sick room lasted forty minutes. When he left the Vatican he was besieged for details, as the aggravation of the pope's condition was already known, but he renewed his assurance that the situation was not grave.

BELGIAN STRIKERS INCREASE

Estimated That Between 200,000 and 300,000 Men Are Out.

Brussels, April 16.—It was impossible to state definitely the total number of workmen who have joined in the strike throughout Belgium for manhood suffrage. Independent estimates place the number between 280,000 and 300,000, although the socialists, who are responsible for the movement, claim 400,000.

Except in the industrial centers the strike has had no apparent effect. The general public has not been inconvenienced, and consequently is not impressed, and as the strikers generally maintain admirable discipline, they have not alienated the sympathies of the liberal capitalists, who are contributing to their fund. The proprietor of a large hotel in Brussels will give $20,000 weekly until the strike is lost or won.

The situation was the subject of debate in the senate. Answering attacks by liberals and socialists, the premier said the government was and is ready to take conciliatory action, but that it has no intention to abdicate before the strike.

DEBENTURE HEAD FINED $500

George S. Hannaford of Chicago Convicted of Using Mails to Defraud.

Cincinnati, April 16.—George S. Hannaford of Chicago, former president of the Chicago Debenture company, and alleged by the government to be a "get-rich-quick man," was fined $500 and costs by Judge Hollister on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

John R. Long of this city and Thomas Wishwick of Buffalo escaped punishment when indictments against them were nolled by Judge Hollister.

The case is the outgrowth of the arrest of a number of men throughout the country several months ago in an alleged get-rich-quick system.

Real Attacks Bogus Lion.

Kansas City, April 16.—Cleve Brown, an actor, who has been donning the skin of a lion in a sketch founded on the "Beauty and the Beast" tale, narrowly escaped death at Kansas City, Kan. Brown replaced on the stage a real lion, which is shown. The change is made by a shift in the scenery. A helper pulled a lever too soon and Brown was tumbled to the stage with the lion. The real lion seized the intruder. Out of the skin backwards to safety went Brown, but not until he was severely injured by the animal's claws. Brown will not be able to assume his role for some time.

SLOW PROGRESS ON TARIFF BILL

Local Interests Appeal to Caucus for Changes.

DUTY ON WHEAT WILL STAND.

Two Amendments Offered to Measure Are Rejected—Citrus Fruit Schedule Is Also to Stand—No Change in Agricultural Schedule.

Washington, April 16.—Slow progress in consideration of the new tariff bill by the Democratic house caucus has upset the early prediction of administration leaders that the bill would be ready for the senate by May 1.

After a week of deliberation the caucus is less than half way through the proposed measure, with several of the important schedules yet to be disposed of, notably wool and cotton. The income tax also is certain to require considerable time in discussion, as members desire to have it thoroughly explained.

The caucus resumed consideration of the agricultural schedule, wheat being first taken up. Northwestern representatives opposed the free listing of flour, declaring it incorsistent with a proposed duty of 10 cents a bushel on wheat. Citrus fruits also were the target for opposition as well as the free listing of potatoes.

Mr. Underwood was sufficiently recovered from his illness to resume charge of the bill in the caucus.

Representative Levy (N. Y.) moved to place wheat on the free list. Fowler (Ill.) offered an amendment to increase the proposed duty on wheat from 10 cents to 15 cents a bushel. The caucus rejected both amendments and left the wheat rate as fixed by Mr. Underwood and his colleagues.

When the citrus fruit provisions were reached Democrats from California and Florida began a fight to maintain present duties on lemons, limes and oranges. Representative Church of California offered an amendment restoring the rates of the Dingley act, a compromise.

The Church amendment was rejected, as was also an amendment proposed by Mr. Clark (Fla.) to increase the duty on pineapples. This disposed of the citrus fruit fight before the caucus and the bill so far remained intact. The caucus wound up the agricultural schedule without a change.

Bridgeport, Conn., April 16.—Bench warrants for President Charles S. Mellen and Vice President E. H. McHenry of the New Haven railroad were issued by Judge Green. They charge gross negligence and manslaughter in connection with the Westport wreck last October, in which several lives were lost.

INHERITANCE TAX $4,000,000

New York State to Get Big Sum From Morgan's Estate.

Albany, N. Y., April 15.—New York state will receive between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000 inheritance tax from the estate of the late J. P. Morgan, according to preliminary estimates made by attaches of the state comptroller's office.

The estimate is based on a report that the total estate will be about $100,000,000. The tax is expected to be one of the largest ever paid.

A reduction of 5 per cent is allowed if the tax is paid within six months after the estate is appraised.

Civil Bill Reintroduced.

Washington, April 15.—Providing that a certain $309,000 of its total shall not be used for Sherman law prosecutions of farmers' co-operative organizations or labor unions, the sundry civil appropriation bill was reintroduced on the floor of the house. Former President Taft vetoed the bill in the last hours of his office because of that provision, which he characterized as "class legislation" of the most vicious sort. The bill also carries appropriations for various branches of the government, totaling $116,000,000.

While not willing to make any formal announcement of his views President Wilson let some of his callers know that he would not object to the passage of the bill in the same form as Mr. Taft vetoed it.

The low-grade powders are made from "alum," or "sodium aluminum sulphate," which is also alum, a mineral acid, which does not make the food healthful.

Food baked with alum baking powders is found to contain a portion of the alum unchanged.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE STUDY ON

MAKING FRIENDS WITH MAMMON.

Genesis 33:1-15—April 20.

"Be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave you."—Ephesians 4:32, R. V.

IN a previous lesson we saw that Jacob left his earthly inheritance to Esau, claiming only the great Abrahamic Promise. That Promise was in respect to the future, and was purely of faith. All Jacob's course in life was governed by that Promise. If the Seed of Blessing was to come through him, then he must have children. Hence he married and reared a goodly family, regarding them as identified with himself in the Promise. His accumulation of flocks and herds was along the same line.

"Jacob Prayed."

About twenty years after Jacob had left home, he returned, under the Lord's guidance, with his flocks, herds and servants, to the land of his father. Naturally, he felt a timidity respecting Esau, and prayed to the Lord upon the subject, reminding Him of the Promise, in which he trusted. Then he sent word to Esau that he was coming. Next he prepared a gift of considerable value for those times—sheep, goats, camels, cattle and asses.

This gift represented long years of toil on Jacob's part. These earthly things, however, Jacob valued as nothing compared with the great Abrahamic Covenant. He could give this goodly portion of earthly mammon to purchase Esau's good will, although he was under no obligations to his brother. He had purchased the first-born's portion, which included the major portion of Isaac's worldly riches. Jacob had left these in Esau's hands. The latter might suspect that Jacob was coming to claim his inheritance.

Had Jacob laid no claim to the estate, Esau would have judged him according to his own standards, and mistrusted that at an opportune moment Jacob would attack him. Thus a feud would have been established between the two families. This would have interfered with Jacob's hopes in connection with the Covenant.

Jacob insisted upon Esau's acceptance of the present. It would stand as a pledge of good faith between them. Esau would all the more willingly see Jacob's prosperity; for he realized that he had gotten the better of his brother, first by getting the patrimony, and secondly, by receiving so rich a present. Evidently Jacob's course was wise. He still had plenty, and God could give him more. His chief concern would be the Abrahamic Promise, the fulfilment of which lay beyond the present life.

The Lesson of Generosity.

One lesson which we as Christians may draw from Jacob's course is that of generosity toward the world—those who have no interest in Heavenly promises. As Jacob was willing to set aside all earthly rights and privileges in favor of the Abrahamic Promise, so the Spiritual Heirs should do likewise.

As Jacob left his father's house, leaving all to his brother without contention, trusting only to the Heavenly Promise, so must we Spiritual Israelites forsake all earthly hopes, to obtain joint-heirship with Christ in the Messianic Kingdom. As Jacob gladly gave presents to Esau for the sake of peace in carrying out God's arrangements under this Promise, so we as Christians should willingly give to our partners in life, our neighbors, friends and brethren, the larger share of earth's good things, if thereby we may forward the Lord's Cause in connection with the Abrahamic Promise, in which we trust.

Mankind have their hearts set upon earthly good things—they know nothing higher. Christians, on the contrary, appreciate Heavenly things, esteeming earthly things as unworthy of comparison. We, like St. Paul, esteem all earthly things but loss and dross that we may win Christ—that we may win joint-heirship with Jesus in the great blessing of God by becoming members of the Spiritual Seed of Abraham, that we may participate in the glorious work of blessing all the families of the earth.

Finally, Our Golden Text.

Our Golden Text seems at first not closely related to the lesson. Nevertheless, there is a relationship. It is this: Whoever cultivates the spirit of generosity and benevolence toward others in the interests of the Lord's Cause will thereby make character. Generosity in dealing with our enemies and with the world will gradually make us more generous with all—especially with the Lord's family, to which our text refers.

"In the School of Christ."

The Church of this Gospel Age is in the School of Christ, to be prepared for Divine service, in association with the Redeemer in His Messianic Reign. The lessons in this School are the graces of the Spirit. To whatever extent we attain these graces, to that extent we shall be prepared for a place in the Kingdom.

BEAT THE NORMAL

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM SHOWED FORM AT PRELIMINARY.

AFTER THE RELAY CUP

Coach Westbrook Hopes to Have Good Showing at Track Meet—Some of the Stars on High School Team.

In a triangular track meet held at the Normal athletic park Tuesday afternoon, with the teams of the high school, Normal and "Come Backs" participating, the high school chaps proved that they intend to be a factor in the Northwest Missouri inter-high school meet which will be held in Maryville, Saturday, April 26, by copping first place with a total of 79½ points. The teachers finished second with 23½, which was but a half point ahead of the "Come Backs." The men on the two latter teams went into the meet with little or no training, and only one man from these two teams entered each event, as their purpose in the meet was not to win, but to aid the local highs in getting into condition for the big event.

Coach Westbrook's men have but little chance to win first or even second in the April meet, if one is to judge by their performance Tuesday afternoon, but there are several athletes on the local squad who should put the Maryville team pretty well up in the running. Lyle has been showing fair form in both the 120 and 220 hurdles, and has been doing good work on the dashes. Captain Staples, who placed in the hurdles last year, ought to be good for several points in these events. Westbrook's team is minus a good distance runner. Montgomery finished in fair time Tuesday evening, but the coach is relying on him to run the quarter and the half. He shows great form in the quarter. The locals should count several points on the field events. Gorman is heaving the shot a good distance, but has fallen down on the discus on account of trying to break away from his own style of throwing and adopt the right form. Both Leech and Capt. Staples have a good chance to place in the hop, skip and jump, and Staples is quite certain to add a point or two in the standing high jump. He made five feet, Tuesday afternoon. He leads in the running broad jump. He will come close to nineteen feet with another week's work.

Coach Westbrook expects to make a strong bid for the relay cup.

Although their regular relay team did not run Tuesday, the high school won the event in one minute and fifty seconds, which is good time, considering the condition of the track.

Following is the summary of the Tuesday meet:

120 hurdles—First, Lyle, high school; second, Condon, high school; third, Staples, high school. Time, 20½ seconds.

Pole vault—First, P. Willson, high school; L. Wilson, high school, and Perrin, Normal, tied for second. Height, 9 feet.

100-yard dash—First, Taylor, "Come Backs;" second, Lyle, high school; third, McKee, Normal. Time, 11¼ seconds.

Mile run—First, Montgomery, high school; second, Boyer, Normal; third, Watson, Normal. Time, 5:18.

Standing broad jump—First, Leech, high school; second, Murray, high school; third, Wilson, high school. Distance, 8 feet 11 inches.

Running high jump—Staples, high school and Watson, Normal, tied for first; Vandersloot, Normal and Condon, high school, tied for third. Height, 5 feet.

Quarter mile—First, Wray, "Come Backs;" second, Vandersloot, Normal; third, Willson, high school. Time, 59 seconds.

Half mile—First, Watson, Normal; second, Denny, "Come Backs;" third, Strawn, high school.

Shot put—First, Gorman, high school; second, Eek, "Come Backs;" third, Taylor, "Come Backs." Distance, 37½ feet.

Hop, skip and jump—First, Leech, high school; second, Staples, high school; Vandersloot and Watson, Normal, tied for third. Distance 37 feet 3 inches.

220 hurdles—First, Lyle, high school; second, Wray, "Come Backs;" third, Vandersloot, Normal. Time, 30 4-5 seconds.

Running broad jump—First, Staples, high school; second, Montgomery, high school; third, Leech, high school. Distance, 18 feet 1 inch.

Discus—First, Leech, high school; second, L. Wilson; high school; third, Eek, "Came Backs." Distance, 88 feet.

Half mile relay, won by high school, Pickens, Willson, Montgomery and Lyle. Time, 1 minute, 50 seconds.

MORE ATHLETICS

TO FORM BASE BALL ASSOCIATION AMONG SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

MOVE MADE AT BANQUET

Emmett Scott Made Chairman of Committee to Represent Methodist Brotherhood in Movement.

At the Methodist Brotherhood banquet held in the parlors of the First M. E. church on Tuesday evening and attended by sixty-five diners, steps were taken to form an interdenominational athletic association, the object of which is to form a Sunday school base ball league here, and to probably take up other athletics. A committee was selected, of which Emmett Scott is chairman, and this committee will confer with a like committee from the other churches to make plans for organization.

Rev. F. W. Simpson, pastor of the First M. E. church of Shenandoah, Ia., was the speaker of the evening. His subject was "A Man's Job." He spoke of Jesus of Nazareth as a muscular character, and told of tasks being undertaken by Him that called for all that was heroic and manly, and these tasks remade and reformed society from its lowest ideals. It caused the church of today, and the minister's job is not nursing the Saints but to be a man among men. The churches true to the highest ideals of Christ, are changing today from individual experiences to social activities, and it is no longer what a man feels, but how does it make other people feel. In closing, Rev. Simpson read an effective poem of his own composition.

Rev. H. J. Dueker, pastor of the M. E. church of Pickering, and Rev. McCartney of Roland, Ia., who is visiting in the city, were guests at the banquet. DIVIDED HONORS

NORMAL AND HIGH SCHOOL EACH WIN CUP.

HAD A LARGE AUDIENCE

James Jones, Normal, Won Lincoln Cup and Miss Laura Craig, High School, the Washington Cup.

An audience that filled the auditorium and galleries of the First Christian church greeted the high school and State Normal contestants in the third annual Washington-Lincoln cup contest, held Tuesday evening.

The program opened with the singing of "America" by the vast audience, which sang with so much spirit that it was evident the fires of patriotism were above the smoldering point.

The invocation was given by Rev. J. D. Randolph of the Buchanan Street Methodist church.

Mr. R. L. McDougal, chairman of the board in charge of the contest, announced the speakers for the evening. The two young men, Mr. James Jones of the State Normal and Mr. George Crowson of the high school, gave excellent orations on Abraham Lincoln, and the two young ladies, Miss Myrtle McPherron of the State Normal and Miss Laura Craig of the high school, paid as good tribute to George Washington, and their efforts were received with great applause, especially from the schools each represented.

The judges were out a considerable time deliberating upon the merits of the speakers and their orations, but finally came in with a decision, which was announced in a most happy manner by Judge Ira K. Alderman. Mr. James Jones was given the trophy cup for the State Normal and Miss Laura Craig was given the cup for the high school.

The judges were Mrs. E. G. Orear, Mr. W. C. Pierce and Rev. Claude J. Miller.

During the evening some excellent music was given by Miss Nellie Wray, who sang Dudley Buck's "Sunset," and by the State Normal Quartet, who gave two numbers, "Comrades in Arms" and "Annie Laurie."

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Claude J. Miller.

These pictures are probably the most expensive and carefully planned in the world. The life of Christ from His birth in a manger at Bethlehem to His crucifixion on the cross at Mount Calvary is presented in moving form.

LANGUAGE TOO PONDEROUS.

Rev. Herbert Blair Told Normal Students of Difficulties in Becoming a Korean Scholar.

Rev. Herbert E. Blair, Korean missionary, who is in this city attending the conference of the Presbyterian church, addressed the Normal assembly Wednesday morning. Rev. Blair's work in the eastern country has given him an opportunity to get a keen insight into the affairs, particularly the social conditions of the people of Korea, and his talk at the Normal was replete with vivid descriptions of these conditions. "The only particular in which the Koreans are superior to the people of the western world," says Rev. Blair, "is that they possess remarkable memories, due to the fact that the fundamental of their educational system is committing to memory." The missionary says that the people who do things worth while in Korea are not the scholars, because the language is so ponderous that it takes one a life-time to become a learned man, and by the time the Korean has mastered the language in a scholarly manner he is an old man, and the best part of his life is spent.

Rev. Blair is a native of Missouri, having graduated from Park college. He will return to his labors in the Orient next fall.

Rev. J. H. Speer, state superintendent of the home missions, was also present at the assembly and conducted the devotional exercises.

A GOOD TIME TO DRAG.

Now is the Most Effective Time to Drag the Public Highways.

"A good time to drag the roads"—this remark has been frequently heard during the past few days. The roads never needed it more than they do right now, and at no other season of the year can so much good be accomplished with the drag as now. Many of the farmers have already attended to the roads in front of their farms, but the work put on the roads by one farmer is practically wasted unless the farmer next to him will take up the work and do his share, and so on throughout the country.

The "good roads" question has been hashed and re-hashed during the past few years, so that every person that wants to look at the proposition right is convinced that dragging is a good things and that every farmer should take sufficient interest to work his share of the highway. Every farmer likes good roads and prefers traveling over smooth, well worked roads to rough, rutty, and badly cut up roads, whether he owns an automobile or not, and he owes it to himself as much as to the public to do his part in keeping the roads in shape. It is, of course, the farmer's busiest time, but quite a number of them have already given a little of their time to dragging the roads, and it is hoped that within the next few days the others will fall in line.

Gypsies Are Here.

Two gypsy women were arrested Tuesday for telling fortunes in the city without a license. They were arraigned before Mayor Robey and gave their names as Anna and Mary Lewis. They were fined $2 and costs, amounting to $8.10 in each case. These two were from a tribe of gypsies that are camping east of the city. The two women had two bears and a monkey with them when arrested Tuesday by Marshal Moberly.

Should You Advertise?

In Kansas City, says the University Missourian, there is a little print shop which has the following pointed paragraphs regarding advertising:

"The man who does not advertise because it costs money, should stop paying salaries for the same reason

The business man who does not advertise because he tried it once and failed, should throw his cigar away because the light went out.

"The business man who does not advertise because he doesn't know how himself, should stop eating because he can't cook.

"The business man who does not advertise because somebody said it did not pay, should not believe the world is round because the ancients said it was flat.

"The business man who does not advertise because he cannot know absolutely that it is going to pay, should commit suicide because he is unable to tell whether he will be killed by accident."

Communcations

Editor Democrat-Forum: The enactment of a law by the last legislature providing for a commission form of government for cities has awakened an increased interest in one of the perplexing problems with which the people of this country has to deal. We have had no small amount of trouble in securing efficiency in the management of our state and national affairs. But in these we have so far been much more successful than we have in securing a satisfactory management of our municipal politics. Somehow it seems that the nearer the governing power comes to the people the more difficult the problem becomes. This, in part, I suspect, grows out of the fact that most people do not want to be governed much. They rather enjoy having their "own sweet way" without any regard to the right or wrong of the ways.

One dangerous class of citizens in every community consists of those who have no regard for the effect of their conduct on other people. Hence a no small question is, how can these people be permitted to so exercise their right of citizenship as not to prove detrimental to the public good. It is an admitted fact that efficiency can only come from competency. But how are we to get competency in the management of our municipalities by the present method? The main objection that I have heard to the commission form of government is that the same "gang" that votes incompetent councilmen into office will vote incompetent commissioners into office. Does it not seem somewhat strange that we have a method of securing competency on the part of those that we employ in nearly every sphere of service except in that of political office in our municipalities? If the law does not establish a standard of competency, [illegible] well defined standards [illegible] for those who aspire [illegible] positions. Even a [illegible] will be an ear, $[illegible]uired by law to be [illegible] M. C[illegible]ral character." But [illegible] standard of qualifica[illegible] otherwise, that has ever [illegible] ed for a city councilman or a st[illegible] marshal? Surely it requires as much of character and ability to manage the affairs of a city as it does the affairs of a saloon.

But how is this efficiency to be secured? Any qualified elector of legal age has a right to be a candidate for any office, and the qualified electors have a right to vote for whomsoever they please, without any reference to the question of efficiency. The result is that those who do not want the restraints of a well regulated law-abiding community, and care nothing for the higher and more ennobling influences of society, always vote for their own sort for office, and, too frequently, because of the indifference or lack of courage on the part of the so-called good people, the incompetents are elected, and the affairs of the city for the time being are turned over to be managed by men who know little or nothing of its needs and cares. The evident intent of the promoters of the commission form of government is to remedy, as far as possible, the defects of the present system. The method is too new to be anything yet but experimental. But it must be admitted that so far the experiment has not disappointed its friends. As yet it has hardly been tried long enough to ascertain what its merits and demerits really are. I venture to suggest that in the last analysis it will be found that the extent to which is concentrates responsibility will be found to be its one feature of greatest merit.

Under the present form the police officers of the city of Maryville are appointed by about 1,000 voters. Thus these officers are responsible to everybody in general and nobody in particular. About the same is true of the mayor and of the councilmen. In the commission form the entire responsibility of the management of the affairs of the city must be assumed by the commissioners. And it matters not by whom they are elected, whether it be by the same "old gang" or by the best people of the city. The very fact of the larger responsibility has its moral effect, and compels a regard for the best interest of the community. For one I am at least willing to give it a trial.

C. H. JOHN.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Roelofson of Barnard were in Maryville Tuesday.

PREVENTIVE MEDICINE.

Ecuador.

The economic value of Preventive Medicine has attracted international attention. The good results obtained in cleaning up the Panama canal zone by Major Gorgas of the United States army are demonstrations or examples that will easily convince anyone of the value of preventive measures. Under his direction the Panama canal zone has been converted from a pest ridden tropical country to a country as healthful as any of the large cities in the United States—a result hardly conceivable before this demonstration.

The foremost men of all nations have been closely watching the progress of public health matters in the Panama canal zone. Recently Ecuador requested the United States to permit Colonel Gorgas to come there for the purpose of cleaning that country. Our government has sanctioned this request, so that Dr. Gorgas may go to Ecuador for the purpose of demonstrating the value of Preventive Medicine. The leading people of Ecuador have been convinced that money judiciously spent on sanitary measures is a rich investment.

The people of Missouri, like the people of Ecuador, can well afford to look into the value of preventive measures and adopt means to put them into effect.

THE GOLDEN AGE AT HAND.

Scriptural Evidences That Are Astonishing—No One Can Afford to Be Without the Knowledge.

We do our friends a valuable service when we call their attention to the valuable book entitled, "THE TIME IS AT HAND," in which are given many Scriptural evidences to prove where we are on the stream of time.

"Men's hearts are failing them for fear" and many of the leading thinkers are proposing remedies to better conditions. The Scriptures assure us that man's extremity will be God's opportunity, and this book holds out an anchor to those who fear the wave of unrest now spreading over the world.

The honest heart confesses that it is at a loss for an explanation of transpiring events. While we refer to this as the BRAIN AGE and the Age of ENLIGHTENMENT, nevertheless many realize that we are fast approaching a crisis which is wrapped in darkness owing to the present world-wide social, religious and political unrest.

"Let George Do It."

This time of year goods that will not sell ON MERIT have hard time of it. They must be pushed out SOMEWAY.

"Let George" be "penny wise and pound foolish." You can't afford such extravagance.

Quality goods are everywhere, and always the cheapest for the man who knows the farming game—right. A real carpenter NEVER buys poor tools no matter WHAT the price.

Here is a little history:

What One Man Knew

Seventy-six years ago a man was hammering out plows by hand in a little blacksmith shop. He had but one policy—a policy that never changed.

"Quality is the one thing wise people NEVER forget," he said, "and quality shall be MY motto—a guiding star I will follow to success."

That man guessed right. He knew the American farmer.

By sticking to QUALITY he became the greatest plow builder of all time. Plows bearing his name are now and have been the world's standard for two generations. They outsell all other makes of steel plows combined.

And that shows what the money making farmer thinks about QUALITY.

Make Easy Money

Multiplying the work of your hands, doing more in the same time, doing better work, is like getting interest on money. It helps a lot and doesn't come hard. It's "Velvet."

Going back to plows—take the New Deere and think of—

1. Quick Detachable Shares. Only one bolt to remove. Saves 80 per cent of the time and all the trouble changing shares. Greatest improvement since the invention of the riding plow.

2. Rigid frame, strongest made. Holds true to shape after years of use. Does not get out of line, become shaky and pull hard. Stands up to the work long enough to make it the cheapest plow in the world, regardless of FIRST Cost.

3. Combined foot and lever lift. You can raise or lower the bottoms without getting on the seat. Convenient when walking on cold mornings or to "stretch your legs."

4. Genuine John Deere Bottoms that never have been equaled for light draft, superb turning qualities and long life. This is the verdict, because farmers use eight times as many of them every year as any other make. That's the answer.

Failure to demand a New Deere Gang when you buy is like loaning money without interest. You are giving away the "Velvet"—the easy money that takes less sweat to make.

Better Seed Beds.

The seed bed is the home of the plant. Look into this question of discing before plowing as well as after. We have the dope in a booklet; ask for it.

The John Deere Model "B" is the only REALLY FLEXIBLE disc harrow. It will cut the full width of the gangs when going diagonally over corn rows and uneven ground.

By using the third lever you can force the inner ends of the gangs down and cut out a dead furrow perfectly. Think of it.

Don't talk about a "Jim Crow" disc. Get the real thing.

He Lost $480.

A Planter was offered for $5.00 less than a John Deere, and he fell for it.

Looked like a chance to save some money.

He said that losing only thirty kernels in 100 hills did not amount to shucks, but it was equal to 10 per cent in accuracy and the difference on his 100 acres that year cost him $480.00 when he huskel his corn in the fall.

Talk about something to make a man sit up and take notice, how is that for left handed economy?

A Whirlwind

The biggest sensation in the implement world this year is the John Deere Spreader.

THE SPREADER WITH THE BEATER ON THE AXLE, THE LOW DOWN SPREADER WITH THE HIGH DIVE WHEELS.

Boys, there is nothing to it. Line up all the different spreaders in a row and if you went down the line you would pick out the John Deere without anybody saying a word to you about it. More sold the past year than all others put together—and that's going some.

Sowing "Wild Oats"

You hear a lot about sowing "wild oats," but beware of anything you can't sow with a Van Brunt Drill or Seeder.

The Van Brunt will handle all the profitable kinds, even Texas oats that put most drills out of business. The patent gate feed—don't miss seeing these drills and seeders now on display at the store.

Talk About Reputation.

When you think of hay tools, there is one name that stands out like a mountain from the surrounding plain. DAIN—the last word on hay machinery. Mowers, Loaders, Rakes, Stackers, Balers. A full line of quality goods, famous the world over. DAIN—

O! Yes, the Free Book.

One of the great subjects that means profit or loss to you is how to maintain the fertility of your land.

There is a new book called "Farm Manures and Fertilizers" just published. It tells all about—

Plant food in different kinds of Manures, the value of Humus, Manure and Crop Rotation, preserving Manure, composting, how to apply on the land, cost, increasing yield of crops, top dressing, Green Manures, Lime, Acid Soils, and all the rest of it. Fully illustrated, no advertising.

The publishers have given me twenty-five coupons, each coupon good for one of these books mailed free. We are going to give a coupon to the first twenty-five men who call for them. Don't wait, be one of the twenty-five to get a free book. It won't cost you a cent if you beat the other fellow to it.

Now, men, don't forget that quality counts whether in live stock or implements. The scrubs are cheap in both. You never make money on runts. Time is the most valuable thing you have, and you waste it by using a farm tool after you know there is a better one you can get.

Remember about the free book.

QUITS LUXURY FOR PULPIT

Millionaire Would Don Overalls If It Would Help Fill Churches.

Kansas City, April 15.—A millionaire's son, the Rev. Ernest C. Webb who forsook motor cars and the "easy life" for the pulpit, preached his first sermon at the Cleveland Avenue Methodist church South. The Rev. Mr Webb is a son of E. T. Webb of Webb City, one of Missouri's wealthiest mine owners. His words were somewhat explanatory of his action in forsaking wealth.

"I want the men in overalls and the women in calico to fill this church every Sunday," said the young minister. "The crying need of our life today is a poor man's church. I will shed this Prince Albert and preach in homespun if it will help.

"Not money, but service is the greatest thing in this world. I would rather be a tub rustler in a 'Jack' mine than a millionaire mine owner who cares for nothing but hearing gold jingle."

The Rev. Mr. Webb is a graduate of Yale university.

Overworked; Ends His Life.

St. Louis, April 15.—Roger V. Scudder, president of the Wesco Supply company, shot himself dead in his Kirkwood residence. Relatives said overwork caused his health to suffer. He was forty-five years old. He left a young widow and a fourteen-year-old daughter by his first wife.

FOUR INSPECTORS INDICTED

Sweeney, Murtha, Hussey and Thompson Charged With Graft.

New York, April 15.—A blanket indictment, charging conspiracy, was returned by the grand jury investigating alleged graft in the police department against Police Captains Dennis Sweeney, John Murtha, James E. Hussey and James F. Thompson. All these officers formerly were inspectors. Sweeney previously had been indicted on a bribery charge.

The indictment of the four grew out of the departure from New York county of George A. Sipp, a former hotel proprietor, on whose accusation Patrolman Eugene Fox was charged with bribery.

NO DISORDERS MARK STRIKE

Two Hundred Thousand Workers Abandon Belgium's Shops.

COAL MINES HARDEST HIT.

Territory About Charleroi Almost Deserted of Employees—Socialist Leaders Confident That They Will Compel Government to Grant Suffrage.

Brussels, April 15.—The great strike of workingmen in Belgium to force the government to grant manhood suffrage is proceeding quietly. It is estimated that 200,000 men throughout the country have quit work. This number is at least 100,000 short of the socialist predictions, and the clerical press is beginning to call the movement a "pitiable fiasco."

Nevertheless the strike has shown greater strength than was expected by impartial observers and it is believed generally that the strikers will be reinforced by several thousand today. The strike thus far has been unmarked by disturbances or any special inconveniences to the general public. The gas, electric light and street cleaning services are in operation as usual, but merchants say business is at a standstill. The city is full of provincial strikers, who are being cared for by the families of liberals.

The only act of sabotage occurred in a suburb, where three big machines in a leather factory were damaged.

Brussels is not an industrial center. There are about 50,000 workmen here, of whom less than 20,000 are out.

The premier, M. de Broukeville, in an interview, admitted that if the strike dragged on it might prove dangerous by leading to disorders, but he said there was no present reason to fear disturbances.

The suspension of work in the coal mines is complete.

Socialist leaders expressed confidence that they will win the fight for suffrage.

GRANDMOTHER USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HER FADED OR GRAY HAIR.

Mixed With Sulphur It Makes Hair Soft, Beautiful; Cures Dandruff.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But the brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays skilled chemists do this better than ourselves. By asking at any drug store for the ready-to-use product—called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy"—you will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Some druggists make their own, which is usually too sticky, so insist upon getting Wyeth's, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says his customers insist on Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because, they say, it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use too. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. Do this at night and by morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

ALBERT C. FROST IS FOUND NOT GUILTY

Verdict Marks End of Alaskan Land Fraud Cases.

Chicago, April 14.—Albert C. Frost, former president and promoter of the Alaska Central railroad, and his four co-defendants, George M. Seward, Pierre G. Beach, Frank Watson and George C. Ball, all interested in the development of the road, were found not guilty in the federal court here of conspiracy to obtain illegally millions of dollars' worth of coal lands in the Matanusko valley, Alaska.

Disputes over the methods of coal claim locators caused the coal lands to be withdrawn from entry in President Roosevelt's last administration. Frost and his associates were indicted March 16, 1911, in the United States district court here, charged with conspiracy to obtain control of sixty-four coal locations by means of "dummy entrymen." The government asserted that the railroad promoters caused stenographers and other employees to apply for coal lands with the purpose of turning the entire group over to Frost.

The verdict, while a vindication of the business methods of the defendants, does not open the way for the completion of the railroad, as the coal lands still are withdrawn from entry and will remain so until released by the department of the interior.

BITTER FIGHT IS INDICATED

Opposed Factions in D. A. R. Congress Have First Clash.

Washington, April 14.—Factional bitterness in the Daughters of the American Revolution was intensified by the sending of a letter from the executive committee of the conservative party, headed by Mrs. William C. Story, a candidate for the president generalship, to Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, retiring head of the society, urging that steps be taken to insure an election fair to all candidates, and a quick denunciation of this action by Mrs. Scott.

Double Bottom Saves Steamer.

Juneau, Alaska, April 14.—The Canadian Pacific steamship Princess Sophia, Captain Charles Campbell, struck a rock at Sentinel island. A large hole was torn in the port side of the steamer's bow, but she was able to proceed on her way to Vancouver, B. C., under her own steam. The steamer's double bottom kept her from sinking. She is taking a little water and is believed to be in no danger.

Excursion Train Wrecked; 7 Dead.

Montreal, April 14.—Seven persons are dead and fifteen were injured as the result of the derailment of an excursion train on the Montreal-Chambly branch of the Central Vermont railway, near St. Lambert.

PRESIDENT'S POSITION STRONG

First Week of Tariff Session of Congress is Past.

LONG STRUGGLE ONLY STARTED

Senate Leaders Have Pledged Their Support to Administration's Plans. Minority Leaders Active—Wool Fight This Week.

Washington, April 14.—President Wilson emerged from the first week of the special tariff session of congress apparently in a stronger position as the active leader of Democracy than at any time since he assumed the presidency.

Within the brief space of seven days he had won a victory in the caucus of the house Democrats for his free sugar program; had formed a working agreement with the Democratic leaders of the senate, which, it is believed, will insure general support of his tariff program in that body; and had established precedents of presidential co-operation with congress, which, if successful, are expected greatly to influence the entire program of legislation throughout the Wilson administration.

At all points where Mr. Wilson's decision was instrumental in the fixing of rates in the new tariff bill, the full Democratic membership of the house voted to sustain him in caucus by heavy majorities. House leaders, who deferred to him in the fixing of many of the tariff rates, have supported his decisions and successfully rallied party support to his defense as the bill has been fought over by the Democratic members.

The tariff revision fight admittedly is only begun, but the developments of the last week have convinced party leaders that there are likely to be few changes from the rates favored by the president, and little dissension within Democratic ranks over the final approval of the bill.

Wool Fight This Week.

The wool fight will come in the house caucus early this week. While a Democratic minority organization of forty or more representatives will attempt to upset the president's free wool program, it is expected that the administration will be sustained by a large majority.

Senate leaders have pledged to the president their support of the sugar and wool provisions as finally accepted in the house. Senator Myers of Montana, who has been counted on by some of the anti-free wool forces as their ally, has informed members of the finance committee and has stated publicly that he favors the free wool program and will uphold the president's course as to this schedule.

The full Democratic membership of the house resumed consideration of the tariff behind closed doors today.

Republican members of the house ways and means committee who had no part in preparing the Underwood bill, are now working on substitute cotton and wool schedules.

Alaskan railroad legislation, which also is to be the subject of senate hearings, will be pressed for early action. Senator Pittman, chairman of the territories committee, will attempt to have an Alaskan government-railroad bill passed through the senate before tariff revision is taken up.

DRAINAGE CONGRESS CLOSES

Wilson Administration Is in Sympathy With Movement.

St. Louis, April 14.—The reading of a telegram from Washington pledging the Wilson administration to substantial work towards the solution of flood, drainage and river navigation problems; the adoption of resolutions urging the creation of a national department of public works under a cabinet member; the defeat of a resolution urging a congressional appropriation for the flood prevention plans of the Mississippi river commission—all these events marked the closing session of the National Drainage congress here.

In addition resolutions were adopted providing for the establishment of a malaria section of the drainage congress and urging the southern states to appoint commissions that will cooperate with the United States public health service in stamping out malaria.

Valdez Named President.

San Domingo, April 14.—Jose Borda Valdez was elected by congress as president of the republic to succeed Archbishop Nouel, who resigned recently because of ill health. The government, within a year, must call a general election.

PNEUMONIA IS FEARED

Indications Point to Utmost Gravity of Condition of Pontiff.

ALL BULLETINS ARE CENSORED

When the Pontiff Expectorated Blood, Attendants Rushed for Doctors, Thinking Death Was at Hand—Temature Rises Rapidly.

Rome, April 14.—All indications point to the utmost gravity of the pope's condition. This morning the fever and cough were giving cause for great alarm. The impression had gained ground that the tracheal bronchitis had developed into pneumonia.

While not absolutely denying this, Professor Marchiafava said:

"At the present time it could not properly be called pneumonia, but with tracheal bronchitis sometimes the lungs do not function properly. Probably the resistent and robust fibre of the holy father may overcome this danger. Meanwhile, we can make the statement, which must give rise to great hope, that the condition of albuminuria has disappeared."

In the two bulletins issued the pope's condition was set forth as hopeful, but it has been learned that the bulletins as prepared by the attending physicians have come under the censorship of the papal secretary of state.

After midnight there was an increase in the temperature of the patient and the fact that a large quantity of disinfectants had been brought into the sick apartment was considered as an indication that the bronchitis had developed into pneumonia.

The monk Vives y Tuto, brother of the cardinal, who has been for some time the confessor of the pope, entered his room and remained there forty-five minutes. It is supposed he confessed the pontiff.

Great alarm was occasioned when the pope, during a strong access of coughing, emitted a quantity of blood. Those present thought he was dying and rushed for a doctor and Cardinal Merry Del Val. The latter, on reaching the bedside, restored calm, saying that probably the pope would feel great relief, as the presence of the blood was doubtless due to the rupture of small vessels in the throat.

OJEDA LOSES NACO BATTLE

Surrenders Himself and Federals to American Troops.

Naco, Ariz., April 14.—General Pedro Ojeda, commanding the remnants of his federal garrison of 300 troopers at Naco, Sonora, surrendered to the United States troops on border patrol here, after having withstood a siege of state troops which lasted for five days, and in which more than half his troopers were killed.

The surrender was hastened by the attack upon the federal garrison by the band of Yaqui Indians under General Obregon, commanding the state troops, who, at daybreak, burst in up on the little garrison across the border and fought viciously.

The dead on both sides has been estimated at 200, and the fortifications at Naco are veritable slaughter pens. About the buildings are strewn more than 100 bodies, shot, cut and horribly mutilated.

General Ojeda, true to his promise, refused to surrender to the state troops, and while the fighting was at its height he attempted to march across the border with his band of faithful federals. The fire from the enemy was demoralizing and Ojeda and his men scattered, running to the railway tracks which separate the two border towns. Not even then did the firing from the rebels cease and General Ojeda shouted to the American soldiers watching the fighting from a distance.

Captain H. A. Stuart, company A, Ninth United States calvary, ran alone to his assistance. The American officer grasped the Mexican general by the arm. Together they ran in a hail of lead to where an automobile was waiting.

Newest Pest.

The newest pest in the west and middle west is the dog. Not the prairie dog, just the common dog. He is responsible for the decline in the sheep raising industry. In many states in the section of the country once largely devoted to cattle and sheep raising, there are more dogs than there are sheep. It takes three barb wires on top of two feet of woven wire to make a fence that will keep dogs away from sheep. Kansas had 175,000 sheep and 199,000 dogs in 1910, according to the secretary of the Kansas board of agriculture.

The usual answer farmers in the west give to the question, "Why don't you keep sheep?" is "We can't keep dogs from killing them."

All persons having any of my chicken coops I would greatly appreciate their returning same at their earliest convenience.

FINAL DRAFT OF BILL MADE

Aliens Not Allowed to Hold Property More Than One Year.

Sacramento, Cal., April 14.—The final draft of the proposed anti-alien land law that is to take the place of all bills that have been introduced relating to the same subject was adopted by the senate on second reading and will come up for final passage in the upper house of the legislature today.

The bill contains nothing that can be construed as grounds for confiscation or escheat of any property held prior to the time the law goes into effect.

Suffrage Meetings Broken Up.

London, April 14.—The weekly attempt of suffragettes to hold a meeting in Hyde park against the opposition of the anti-suffragettes was made again. The crowd howled down the speakers and hurled missiles at them until the police were forced to interfere and escort the suffragettes from the park. Wild disorder occurred at Wimbledon common, where an enormous force of police was engaged in protecting suffragettes holding an open air meeting. A suffragette meeting at Hempstead heath also was broken up.

FIVE THOUSAND DRUGGISTS.

Unite in Opinion Regarding One Medicine.

If any one should know the value of a medicine it is the retail druggist who sells it.

Therefore, when over five thousand of the best retail druggists in the country recommend Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, as the greatest tonic reconstructor and strength creator they have ever sold, it must indicate the value of Vinol.

We could publish columns of such testimony as the following:

Mr. E. C. Spens, druggist of Alpena, Mich., says: "Vinol is the ideal tonic reconstructor, as it really today is the best remedy we have on our shelves."

Mr. C. F. Bucholtz, the leading druggist of Springfield, Ohio, says: "Vinol gives better satisfaction than any medicine I have sold in my store."

We ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person or any person suffering from chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis, to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not do all we claim.—Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

ATTEMPT TO KILL ALFONSO

Three Shots Fired at King of Spain Without Effect.

OWES LIFE TO HORSEMANSHIP

Animal Rears as Assailant Jumps for Bridle—King Calm After Attack. Reassures Attendants With "It Is Nothing, Gentlemen."

Madrid, April 14.—For the third time in his reign King Alfonso narrowly escaped being the victim of an anarchistic attempt against his life. Three shorts were fired at the king in the streets of the capital by a native of Barcelona, Rafael Sanchez Allegro, who was immediately overpowered.

King Alfonso owes his escape to his own courage, quickness and skilled horsemanship. Accompanied by his staff, he was riding along the Calle de Alcala, returning from the ceremony of swearing in recruits, when a man sprang from the sidewalk and seized the bridle of the king's horse with one hand, firing the revolver with the other. The king realized the situation rapidly, and dug his spurs into the horse, which reared violently. His quickness saved his life. The bullet instead of burying itself in the king's breast, struck the horse. So close was the range that the king's left glove was blackened by the powder discharge.

Assailant Overpowered.

Before the assailant was able to pull the trigger again a secret service man sprang upon him. The two men fell to the ground locked in each other's arms, struggling furiously. The assassin managed to free his revolver arm and fired two more shots in rapid succession, but the officer knocked his arm aside and the bullets flew harmlessly through the air.

At the sound of the first shot, the king's staff forced their horses on the sidewalk and made a ring around the assassin, who fought fiercely in the grip of four policemen before he was overpowered and handcuffed.

King Alfonso, as soon as he saw that the man had been secured, raised himself from the stirrups, turned to the crowd, gave a military salute and shouted in a ringing voice:

"Long live Spain!"

He then dismounted and reassured his staff, saying:

"It is nothing, gentlemen."

TAKES BRITISH VIEW OF TREATY

Wilson is Against Free Use of Canal by American Ships.

WOULD BE SUBSIDY IN EFFECT

President Regards Proposed Exemption as Violation of Compact—Executive Would Delay Action on Proposition Until Tariff Is Settled.

London, April 16.—The report sent by James Bryce, British ambassador to the United States, on the results of a recent conversation with President Wilson foreshadows, it is understood, a favorable termination of the controversy between the two countries over the question of the Panama canal tolls. The Manchester Guardian understands that President Wilson will shortly make an important statement on the question.

Washington, April 16.—While President Wilson has never expressed himself publicly on the question of Panama canal tolls, he has informally indicated to his friends that he believes in an interpretation of the treaty which would make it improper for the United States to exempt its vessels in the coastwise traffic from paying tolls. He is also understood to take the position that the exemption as now proposed is in effect a subsidy, and he always has been opposed to subsidies.

The report that the president had intimated to Ambassador Bryce that the settlement of the question would be favorable to Great Britain is credited generally in official circles, because it is thought that Mr. Wilson's personal friendship for the retiring ambassador would account for their intimate conversation on this point just before Mr. Bryce's departure, although Mr. Wilson has been urged not to give formal expression to his views until the tariff is disposed of in the present session of congress. Mr. Wilson is said to realize that the tolls question might, if brought up at present, divide the Democratic majority and cause embarrassment to the tariff question, which he regards as paramount.

The inference drawn from the London report is that the president has seen fit informally to indicate to England that a favorable adjustment will be forthcoming, so as to forestall early representations from Great Britain and so that the British government might understand fully the strategic reason for temporary delay.

Senator Root's bill to repeal the free toll provision of the new law will be the subject of consideration by the new committee within a short time.

STILWELL IS ACQUITTED

Declared Not Guilty of Graft Charges by New York Senate.

Albany, N. Y., April 16.—Stephen J. Stilwell, Democratic senator from New York city, was declared not guilty of unofficial conduct. By a vote of 21 to 28, the senate voted not to sustain charges brought by George H. Kendall, president of the New York Bank Note company, that Stilwell had accepted half of a $250 fee paid for the drafting of a bill in which the company was interested and had solicited a $3,500 bribe.

The announcement of the vote marked the climax of a most dramatic session. After counsel for both the accuser and accused had summed up, Senator Stilwell himself made an eloquent plea in his own behalf. He was haggard and in tears when he concluded.

Lynch Slated for Public Printer's Job

Washington, April 16.—James M. Lynch, president of the International Typographical union, is slated for public printer. Senators Hughes and Martine and the New Jersey delegation in congress who came to urge President Wilson to select Cornelius Ford, president of the New Jersey State Federation of Labor, were told that Lynch had been practically decided upon.

Osborne for First Assistant to Bryan

Washington, April 16.—President Wilson nominated former Governor John E. Osborne of Wyoming to be first assistant secretary of state; Walter S. Page of New York, to be ambassador to Great Britain, and W. H. Osborne of Greensboro, N. C., to be commissioner of internal revenue.

Movies Cause a Shooting.

Denver, April 16.—At a moving picture show Ralph Jones, aged fourteen, became excited over a wild west scene shown on the screen, pulled a broken revolver from his pocket, and fired at the bandit's picture. The bullet struck William O. Fuller in the temple, but inflicted only a flesh wound.

Hitchcock Calls for Correspondence

Washington, April 16.—All correspondence between the United States and Colombia relating to the latter's claims for the partition of Panama are called for, to be submitted to the senate, by a resolution introduced by Senator Hitchcock.

Denies Outbreaks by Moros.

Washington, April 16.—General J. Franklin Bell, commanding the Philippine division, cabled the war department that everything is quiet on the island of Jolo. He said there was no justification for alarming reports about Moro outbreaks.

CALIFORNIA HOUSE PASSES LAND BILL

Tokyo Papers Up in Arms Against Alien Ownership Act.

Sacramento, Cal., April 16.—An anti-alien land ownership bill, designed primarily to prevent Japanese from acquiring title to real property within the state, but so worded as to prohibit any alien from owning land more than one year, except on a declaration of his intention to become a citizen, was passed by the lower house of the legislature by a vote of 60 to 15. After two hours had been spent in debating proposed amendments, the bill went to a roll call without a word of argument.

In order not to embarrass foreign corporations the committee did make the corporation clause of the bill, section 8, apply only to "aliens not eligible to citizenship."

Several proposed amendments were defeated in quick order before Assemblyman Johnson proposed to put back in the bill throughout "the aliens not eligible to citizenship" clause.

Tokyo Papers Up in Arms.

Tokyo, April 16.—The leading newspapers of Tokyo, the Asahi, the Kikumin Shimbun and Jiji Shimpo, which usually are conservative, have assumed an extremist attitude on the projected alien ownership question in California. The Kikumin Shimbun is almost violent, while the Asahi is pessimistic.

MORALS COURT PROPOSED

Illinois Welfare Commission Will Introduce Bill in Legislature.

Chicago, April 16.—A state morals court, with women as judges, to protect working girls against unprincipaled employers will be proposed in a bill to be introduced in the Illinois legislature by the state senate's welfare commission.

Lieutenant Governor O'Hara, chairman of the commission, made this announcement just before members of the investigating body departed for Springfield.

"We have received scores of letters from stenographers and factory girls telling how they had been led astray by the men for whom they worked," said the lieutenant governor. "These letters were not anonymous, and we have a list of more than 200 business and professional men filed away for reference. These men figured in the communications we received as responsible agents for the moral ostracism of more than 200 girls.

"The girl who is wronged by a man of station can do practically nothing under present conditions. When she goes to court the publicity injures her more than it does the man and she frequently is accused of attempted blackmail.

"With five women acting as judges of a state's moral court conditions will be changed. Girls can tell their experiences in confidence and escape harmful publicity. The name of the responsible man will be known to the court and if circumstances warrant the information can be used either to drive the man from the community or to prosecute him."

Titanic Memorial Tower Dedicated.

New York, April 16.—Men prominent in church, business and shipping circles gathered at the Seamen's Church institute on the lower water front to dedicate the Titanic Memorial lighthouse tower, erected to the memory of the men and women who went down with the ship. It stands on the corner of the institute building overlooking the harbor, and will have a range of twelve miles.

Not Trying to Flim-Flam You ---We've Got the Goods

IF YOU were buying Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Groceries, Furniture, Hardware or any of the other necessities of life you'd want to know what you were paying for. Is there any good reason why the man or woman who spends money for advertising should be less particular? There are but three elements in paying advertising—the article advertised, the manner in which the advertisement is presented and the medium used. We have THE BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM in Northwest Missouri—the best in Nodaway county and the best in Maryville. In a city in which according to the United States census less than 5000 people dwell we have attained to a circulation with a daily average for the past six month—152 publication days—of 2434. Not in all Missouri can you find any daily paper similarly situated which has a circulation nearly so large. Look at the table—the figures tell the story in language most eloquent and forceful.

2434

With no day running below 2320 for a period of six months containing 152 publication days, the daily average circulation of the Democrat-Forum was

2434

During that period there were no "special issues," no contests to work up circulation, no extraordinary efforts made to stimulate interest in the growth of the paper other than to maintain the everyday standard of the paper itself—that's been our aim—to make a paper that was "worth while."

The mere claim that a newspaper has a certain circulation might be viewed with more or less suspicion. But REMEMBER we are presenting you with a sworn statement that the Daily average for six months was

2434

The claims of other papers to circulation should not be considered unless they are willing to submit to the "acid test" of making affidavit to what they are actually doing—it's the only method by which the public can be certain and is the method employed by leading papers everywhere.

The Paper Whose Circulation Grows Naturally is the One That Reaches the Homes

There are two kinds of circulation—the one kind is that attained because of the interest and confidence felt by its subscribers in the reading matter contained in its columns—such an interest as causes its readers to feel that it's "my paper." The other kind is the circulation that is forced and stimulated by extraordinary methods. It bears the same relation to the first kind as does the hot house plant to the plant that grows in the sunlight and open air and that is nourished and fed by the elements of nature. We have fought "shy" of the second kind—we've turned down dozens of schemes that in the estimation of their promotors would have made us rich. But we have tried to give the news—fairly and impartially, whether we liked it or not; we have tried to avoid "coloring" news articles and to make sensations out of plain ordinary occurrences. Our readers have met us upon this issue and have approved it and appreciated it. The proof of the assertion is found in the table of figures presented for your consideration. The advertiser who is wise will place his advertising with the paper that has the hold upon the hearts of the people. And "Lest We Forget"

POPE'S CONDITION IS AGAIN SERIOUS

Pontiff's Temperature Rises Above One Hundred.

BRONCHIAL SYMPTOMS APPEAR

This Condition Is Causing New and Grave Concern—Dark Reports Are Current, but Physicians Still Say "No Danger."

Rome, April 16.—There has been a sudden change for the worse in the condition of Pope Pius X. Notwithstanding the reassurances of Professor Marchiafava, a careful watch is being kept on the Vatican and there is doubt that the "satisfactory general condition" of the pontiff, as reported by the doctors, is borne out by the facts.

The temperature of the pope, which throughout the morning remained at 97 degrees, in itself indicating depression and weakness, rose to 100 and later to 102. The bronchial symptoms, which at the morning examination were found to be diminished, presented new and grave features. The affected zone on the left side of the chest was further congested, with a possible area of consolidation—one of the signs of phenia—and the conditions within the bronchial tube were more pronounced.

Dark Reports Current.

The darkest reports are being circulated. One is that the pope is at the point of death and that Father Pifferri, an Augustinian monk, has been ordered to be in readiness to bring to the patient the last communion, this being the prerogative of his office.

This appears to be an exaggeration of the situation, although undoubtedly the pope's condition is much worse, owing to the fact that he did not take sufficient rest and over-exerted himself, as he had done on previous occasions. This resulted in general prostration, elevation of the temperature and inability to retain even the lightest nourishment.

The arrival in Rome of Angelo Sarto, the pope's brother, was interpreted in some quarters as a certain sign that all hope had been abandoned. It was forgotten that Angelo Sarto left his own village on his journey to the Holy City long before the present setback of the patient occurred; in fact, the condition of the pope was greatly improved.

Professor Marchiafava's visit to the sick room lasted forty minutes. When he left the Vatican he was besieged for details, as the aggravation of the pope's condition was already known, but he renewed his assurance that the situation was not grave.

BELGIAN STRIKERS INCREASE

Estimated That Between 200,000 and 300,000 Men Are Out.

Brussels, April 16.—It was impossible to state definitely the total number of workmen who have joined in the strike throughout Belgium for manhood suffrage. Independent estimates place the number between 280,000 and 300,000, although the socialists, who are responsible for the movement, claim 400,000.

Except in the industrial centers the strike has had no apparent effect. The general public has not been inconvenienced, and consequently is not impressed, and as the strikers generally maintain admirable discipline, they have not alienated the sympathies of the liberal capitalists, who are contributing to their fund. The proprietor of a large hotel in Brussels will give $20,000 weekly until the strike is lost or won.

The situation was the subject of debate in the senate. Answering attacks by liberals and socialists, the premier said the government was and is ready to take conciliatory action, but that it has no intention to abdicate before the strike.

DEBENTURE HEAD FINED $500

George S. Hannaford of Chicago Convicted of Using Mails to Defraud.

Cincinnati, April 16.—George S. Hannaford of Chicago, former president of the Chicago Debenture company, and alleged by the government to be a "get-rich-quick man," was fined $500 and costs by Judge Hollister on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

John R. Long of this city and Thomas Wishwick of Buffalo escaped punishment when indictments against them were nolled by Judge Hollister.

The case is the outgrowth of the arrest of a number of men throughout the country several months ago in an alleged get-rich-quick system

Real Attacks Bogus Lion.

Kansas City, April 16.—Cleve Brown, an actor, who has been donning the skin of a lion in a sketch founded on the "Beauty and the Beast" tale, narrowly escaped death at Kansas City, Kan. Brown replaced on the stage a real lion, which is shown. The change is made by a shift in the scenery. A helper pulled a lever too soon and Brown was tumbled to the stage with the lion. The real lion seized the intruder. Out of the skin backwards to safety went Brown, but not until he was severely injured by the animal's claws. Brown will not be able to assume his role for some time.

SLOW PROGRESS ON TARIFF BILL

Local Interests Appeal to Caucus for Changes.

DUTY ON WHEAT WILL STAND.

Two Amendments Offered to Measure Are Rejected—Citrus Fruit Schedule Is Also to Stand—No Change in Agricultural Schedule.

Washington, April 16.—Slow progress in consideration of the new tariff bill by the Democratic house caucus has upset the early prediction of administration leaders that the bill would be ready for the senate by May 1.

After a week of deliberation the caucus is less than half way through the proposed measure, with several of the important schedules yet to be disposed of, notably wool and cotton. The income tax also is certain to require considerable time in discussion, as members desire to have it thoroughly explained.

The caucus resumed consideration of the agricultural schedule, wheat being first taken up. Northwestern representatives opposed the free listing of flour, declaring it inconsistent with a proposed duty of 10 cents a bushel on wheat. Citrus fruits also were the target for opposition as well as the free listing of potatoes.

Mr. Underwood was sufficiently recovered from his illness to resume charge of the bill in the caucus.

Representative Levy (N. Y.) moved to place wheat on the free list. Fowler (Ill.) offered an amendment to increase the proposed duty on wheat from 10 cents to 15 cents a bushel. The caucus rejected both amendments and left the wheat rate as fixed by Mr. Underwood and his colleagues.

When the citrus fruit provisions were reached Democrats from California and Florida began a fight to maintain present duties on lemons, limes and oranges. Representative Church of California offered an amendment restoring the rates of the Dingley act, a compromise.

The Church amendment was rejected, as was also an amendment proposed by Mr. Clark (Fla.) to increase the duty on pineapples. This disposed of the citrus fruit fight before the caucus and the bill so far remained intact. The caucus wound up the agricultural schedule without a change.

INHERITANCE TAX $4,000,000

New York State to Get Big Sum From Morgan's Estate.

Albany, N. Y., April 15.—New York state will receive between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000 inheritance tax from the estate of the late J. P. Morgan, according to preliminary estimates made by attaches of the state comptroller's office.

The estimate is based on a report that the total estate will be about $100,000,000. The tax is expected to be one of the largest ever paid.

A reduction of 5 per cent is allowed if the tax is paid within six months after the estate is appraised.

Civil Bill Reintroduced.

Washington, April 15.—Providing that a certain $309,000 of its total shall not be used for Sherman law prosecutions of farmers' co-operative organizations or labor unions, the sundry civil appropriation bill was reintroduced on the floor of the house. Former President Taft vetoed the bill in the last hours of his office because of that provision, which he characterized as "class legislation" of the most vicious sort. The bill also carries appropriations for various branches of the government, totaling $116,000,000.

While not willing to make any formal announcement of his views President Wilson let some of his callers know that he would not object to the passage of the bill in the same form as Mr. Taft vetoed it.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE STUDY ON

MAKING FRIENDS WITH MAMMON.

Genesis 33:1-15—April 20.

"Be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave you."—Ephesians 4:32. R. V.

IN a previous lesson we saw that Jacob left his earthly inheritance to Esau, claiming only the great Abrahamic Promise. That Promise was in respect to the future, and was purely of faith. All Jacob's course in life was governed by that Promise. If the Seed of Blessing was to come through him, then he must have children. Hence he married and reared a goodly family, regarding them as identified with himself in the Promise. His accumulation of flocks and herds was along the same line.

"Jacob Prayed."

About twenty years after Jacob had left home, he returned, under the Lord's guidance, with his flocks, herds and servants, to the land of his father. Naturally, he felt a timidity respecting Esau, and prayed to the Lord upon the subject, reminding Him of the Promise, in which he trusted. Then he sent word to Esau that he was coming. Next he prepared a gift of considerable value for those times—sheep, goats, camels, cattle and asses.

This gift represented long years of toil on Jacob's part. These earthly things, however, Jacob valued as nothing compared with the great Abrahamic Covenant. He could give this goodly portion of earthly mammon to purchase Esau's good will, although he was under no obligations to his brother. He had purchased the first-born's portion, which included the major portion of Isaac's worldly riches. Jacob had left these in Esau's hands. The latter might suspect that Jacob was coming to claim his inheritance.

Had Jacob laid no claim to the estate, Esau would have judged him according to his own standards, and mistrusted that at an opportune moment Jacob would attack him. Thus a feud would have been established between the two families. This would have interfered with Jacob's hopes in connection with the Covenant.

Jacob insisted upon Esau's acceptance of the present. It would stand as a pledge of good faith between them. Esau would all the more willingly see Jacob's prosperity; for he realized that he had gotten the better of his brother, first by getting the patrimony, and secondly, by receiving so rich a present. Evidently Jacob's course was wise. He still had plenty, and God could give him more. His chief concern would be the Abrahamic Promise, the fulfilment of which lay beyond the present life.

The Lesson of Generosity.

One lesson which we as Christians may draw from Jacob's course is that of generosity toward the world—those who have no interest in Heavenly promises. As Jacob was willing to set aside all earthly rights and privileges in favor of the Abrahamic Promise, so the Spiritual Heirs should do likewise.

As Jacob left his father's house, leaving all to his brother without contention, trusting only to the Heavenly Promise, so must we Spiritual Israelites forsake all earthly hopes, to obtain joint-heirship with Christ in the Messianic Kingdom. As Jacob gladly gave presents to Esau for the sake of peace in carrying out God's arrangements under this Promise, so we as Christians should willingly give to our partners in life, our neighbors, friends and brethren, the larger share of earth's good things, if thereby we may forward the Lord's Cause in connection with the Abrahamic Promise, in which we trust.

Mankind have their hearts set upon earthly good things—they know nothing higher. Christians, on the contrary, appreciate Heavenly things, esteeming earthly things as unworthy of comparison. We, like St. Paul, esteem all earthly things but loss and dross that we may win Christ—that we may win joint-heirship with Jesus in the great blessing of God by becoming members of the Spiritual Seed of Abraham, that we may participate in the glorious work of blessing all the families of the earth.

Finally, Our Golden Text.

Our Golden Text seems at first not closely related to the lesson. Nevertheless, there is a relationship. It is this: Whoever cultivates the spirit of generosity and benevolence toward others in the interests of the Lord's Cause will thereby make character. Generosity in dealing with our enemies and with the world will gradually make us more generous with all—especially with the Lord's family, to which our text refers.

"In the School of Christ."

The Church of this Gospel Age is in the School of Christ, to be prepared for Divine service, in association with the Redeemer in His Messianic Reign. The lessons in this School are the graces of the Spirit. To whatever extent we attain these graces, to that extent we shall be prepared for a place in the Kingdom.

You can buy land that will double in value in a short time. These are railroad lands and the opportunity is limited, but the chances for gain are large. Excursions every first and third Tuesday in each month. Come and go with us. We are Missourians and can show you.
